A cold case investigation of a notorious serial killer who terrorized 1970s Washington D.C. by the New York Times bestselling true crime coauthors. In 1971 and 1972, a deadly predator stalked the streets of the nation's capital. His targets were young girls whose fates included rape and torture before their brutalized corpses were left in plain view along busy roadways. Seven victims raging from the ages of ten to eighteen died in his hands. On one victim he left a note, taunting police and claiming the media's name for him: The Freeway Phantom. Then, as abruptly as he started, the Freeway Phantom stopped. Decades later, Washington DC's oldest unsolved serial killing spree is pried open with the suspects, the liars, and the evidence laid bare. Father-daughter true crime investigators Blaine Pardoe and Victoria Hester shed new light and provide tantalizing new clues as to who the Freeway Phantom may be.

The New York Times bestselling author of A Work in Progress and Note to Self moves fully into adulthood with his illuminating, soulful, bleeding collection of narrative, poetry, and original film photography. Humanitarian, entrepreneur, and content creator Connor Franta first captivated readers with A Work In Progress, ruminating on his Midwestern roots to his early start as a visionary and online thought-leader. He continued his soul-searching-through-a-broken-heart with Note to Self, challenging readers—and himself—to ponder the spectrum of humanity and their place within it. Now as Franta approaches thirty, life is no less confusing, but he finds this journey endlessly fascinating. Writing about confusion and clarity, loneliness and whirlwind romances, despair and elation—and everything in between—Franta invites readers back into the intimacy of his mind. House Fires magnifies a young man's emotional warfare with his past, the daze of wandering through modern times in search of purpose, and the electricity flying from tomorrow's potential.

In Millie Moore's Face Front, the wealthy Montgomery family has become prey to the worst kind of killer—one who knows family secrets and hides in the shadows, deceiving them into believing they are safe. In this twist-of-fate page-turner that exposes the consequences of jealousy and greed, a popular story from the book of Genesis is given a modern day spin. "Jealousy is, I think, the worst of all faults because it makes a victim of both parties." —Gene Tierney When prominent Adele Pruitt Montgomery dies of what the local police are calling "natural causes," her son, Steven, hires a former Police Detective, Schwinn, to prove otherwise. As Schwinn uncovers details of the Montgomery family—and their fortune—it isn't long before he is convinced the killer is someone in the Montgomery family's inner circle: Steven's new wife, Madison; his daughter, Samantha; or perhaps even Steven himself.

This novel, titled The Indigo Memoirs, details anecdotes, events, thoughts, opinions, experiences, and memories that have occurred during my life. The book retells my travels over Australia and other parts of the world, including Greece and Japan. It includes my struggles at school as well as my personal and intimate experiences. There is something for everyone in this book. There elements of comedy, suspense, lust, and action. There are elements of spirituality and theology, and the material is graphic and heavy at times. The Indigo Memoirs tells the story of who I am and how I became who I am.

In the dense forest north of Bhutan live Magyras, creatures of old found only in urban legends and myths. For centuries they have lived a quiet life of isolation and peace. Stories were written about them; and through the passing of time, stories were all that were left. Dr. Ogden Sebastian Cross has spent his life following these stories, searching for evidences that will prove their existence. Bastian grew up chasing myths and legends with his grandfather, world-renown Dr. Ogden Cross and his unpredictable brother, Daryl Cross. With the death of his grandfather and the disappearance of his brother, Bastian must find the strength within to trace their steps and prove the existence of these elusive and mysterious creatures. But will he keep it together once he is thrown in an expedition with his ex-wife, her new fiancé, and the world's best hunter? Will he make it in time to save his brother and the world?

Liberation, lust, envy, rage, power, thrill—our cars provoke enough emotion to jam a six-lane highway. If you name your ride, reminisce about sex in the back seat or enjoy roaring down the open road, you know why we love our wheels. But if you hate traffic, curse at the price at the pump or fight over parking spaces, you know why we hate them too. Drive is a cross-continent adventure that explores where our fuel-injected dreams have taken us. Award-winning journalist Tim Falconer invites us on his road trip as he meets vintage car enthusiasts on Route 66, rides along in a police cruiser, kicks the tires at a Las Vegas auto show and takes a hydrogen-powered car for a spin. Steering us along North America's interstates and blue highways, meandering through small towns, sprawling suburbs and walkable neighbourhoods, Falconer shows us the growing collision of cars and people. In this complicated affair, who's really in the driver's seat? Can smart growth, public transit and complete streets free us? A spirited, front-seat view of quirky locals and locales, Drive looks at what auto-dominated life means to our health, environment and communities. Falconer also opens the door on British and Argentine car cultures, and considers the road ahead for China and India, nations with increasingly American attitudes. As billions grab their keys, can we avoid carmageddon? "[A] fascinating survey of the automobile and its effect on society ... A fun book about a serious topic." —Winnipeg Free Press "Essential reading for any Canadian intrigued by the conundrum of finding better ways to get from here to there." —Spacing magazine

Life constantly changes the shots it throws at us. Do you know what to do when life's on a breakaway to your open net? Or, do you know how to face a major roadblock in your career? Furthermore, are you looking for gold medal-winning strategies to help you get the edge in your field? Lessons Learned: My Journey to the Podium is the real-life story of three-time gold medal winning Paralympian Josh Pauls on his adventure to achieving his dreams. This inspirational book takes readers through Josh's life, from having his legs amputated at ten months old to becoming the youngest team captain of the US Sled Hockey Team. In Lessons Learned: My Journey to the Podium, you will learn: • inspiration and strategies on how to reach the top of your field through unique stories and humor, • valuable lessons you can apply to your everyday life and overcome the challenges you face, • what it is like to be behind the scenes at some of the world's greatest sporting events, • the real reason why Josh Pauls can honestly say, "I can guarantee if I had come out with fully functional legs, I wouldn't have had the great life I have now." A story of triumph over challenges, Lessons Learned: My Journey to the Podium demonstrates that success can be measured not only by the end goal, but also on the journey it took to get there. Success isn't something that happens overnight. Josh Pauls shows how hard work, determination, and persistence can positively affect one's life. "My biggest asset is the positive attitude I carry along with me wherever I go." —Josh Pauls

When Kathie Durst vanished in 1982, her friends implicated her husband, Robert Durst, son of a New York real estate magnate. To no avail. Then nearly twenty years later, Durst, an heir to a two-billion-dollar empire, was being sought in connection with two murders. Written by the first journalist to access Durst's NYPD files, and based on in depth interviews, A Deadly Secret is a headline-making true crime book that recounts a story far from over.

Newly updated, the true story of a retired couple, a coldblooded killer, and the controversial aftermath: "A gripping read."

—Aphrodite Jones, host of True Crime for Investigation Discovery Network Tom and Jackie Hawks loved their life in retirement, sailing on their yacht, the Well Deserved. But when the birth of a new grandson called them back to Arizona, they put the boat up for sale. Skylar Deleon and his pregnant wife, Jennifer, showed up as prospective buyers, with their baby in a stroller, and the Hawkses thought they had a deal. Soon after, however, the older couple disappeared—and the Deleons promptly tried to access the Hawkses's bank accounts. As police investigated, they not found not only a third homicide victim with ties to Skylar, but an unusual motive: Skylar had wanted gender reassignment surgery for years. By killing the Hawkses and plundering their assets, the Deleons planned to clear their $100,000 in debts and still have money for the already-scheduled surgery. Now, in this updated edition, which includes extensive new material, New York Times—bestselling author Caitlin Rother presents new developments in the case. Skylar, who was sentenced to death row for the three murders, transitioned via hormones while living in the San Quentin psych unit. Recently, she legally changed her name and gender, apparently a strategic step to obtain taxpayer-subsidized gender confirmation surgery and transfer to a women's prison. Combined with Governor Gavin Newsom's moratorium on executions, this only adds insult to injury for the victims' families, who want Skylar to receive the ultimate punishment for her crimes. "Well researched and a quick, engrossing read, this should be popular with true crime readers, especially the Ann Rule crowd." —Library Journal
