Discover the stories behind 15 of the twentieth century's key inventions in this fun and informative treasury of trailblazing women, who each made a unique contribution to the history of science and technology. Car heaters...Monopoly...Disposable diapers...The dishwasher...Kevlar...Maritime flares... Anti-reflective glass...Wifi...Syringes...Submarine periscopes...Diagnostic tests...Lifeboats...Windshield wipers...Ebooks...What do each of these revolutionary inventions have in common? They were all pioneered by women! Each brilliant idea is presented with biographical information about the brilliant woman who came up with it, including what inspired them. Learn how Martha Coston disguised herself as a man to contact pyrotechnicians and convince them to manufacture her idea for maritime flares, how a New York tram ride on a wet winter's day led Mary Anderson to invent the windshield wiper, and why Letitia Mumford Geer's one-hand operated syringe was a medical breakthrough, among other fascinating facts. Full-page illustrations show the inspiration for and use of these incredible inventions in humorous detail. From lifeboat-inventor, Maria Beasley, to the grandmother of the ebook, Ángela Ruiz Robles, each of the inspiring women in this book achieved their goal of leaving the world a better place than they found it.

" These poems have been a great addition to my classroom ELA activities. I write the poem on chart paper and choose students to highlight the sight words level 1 and rhyming words. They LOVE creating their own illustration to go along with the poem." " This is a great idea. I actually printed all of the poems, put it a spiral for each of students and we work on them everyday. I teach first grade and there are a lot of sight word writing that they have to learn, I am hoping this will help. Thanks. " These are great for centers when I am doing guided reading, and the kids can work on a sight words first grade we are learning each week :) Many thanks for stopping by and taking a look! Sincerely, Enjoy :) All Sight Word Workbook Educate School

The quality of mercy is stressed in this delightful picture book. In this vibrant, yet tenderly illustrated book, three friends are searching for cherries dropped by birds, when they find an egg in the grass. Weasel is quite happy to have an egg instead of a cherry. "Let's eat it," he said. "But it's so small that it would hardly be worth it," said Tortoise, who had once been an egg himself. So Tortoise watches over it, and feeds the little chick that emerges, and even manages to persuade Weasel that he should help him fatten it up. Mole finds worms especially for their little protégé. And when at last the bird is fully-grown, even Weasel cannot bring himself to eat her! So she flies off unhindered -- and then she flies back again, with cherries in her mouth.
