The rapidly approaching end of the age is witnessing a tremendous increase in the activity of the powers of darkness. These conditions are reacting strongly upon the great ministry of Christ's Church. No longer are these concerned about the lost souls which wander in darkness; their thought is centered on raising their social status and meeting their intellectual and physical needs. They seek, in their own jargon, to "build a better world."

But the world they envision is one without a Savior. There are few subjects relating to the Christian life concerning which there is so little exact knowledge as that of the Authority of the Believer. This is not because such authority is the property only of a few elect souls. On the contrary, it is the possession of every true child of God. It is one of the "all things received in Christ." Its reception dates from the soul's contact with Calvary. John MacMillan was a Canadian Presbyterian businessman who became involved with ministry to Chinese and Jewish people in Toronto. Ordained at the age of 49, MacMillan and his wife traveled to China as missionaries with The Christian and Missionary Alliance. He later became Field Director of the Christian and Missionary Alliance in the Philippines. Authority is delegated power. Jesus delegated the authority on the earth to His body on the earth. Understanding this authority is of top importance in working with God in prayer in the end of days. Christians have the authority to keep Satan from having high carnival in their homes and families. Wherever demon forces are the culprits, we have the authority to keep them at bay. But believers must know about it. And they must know how to operate in it. In the 1980s, Kenneth E. Hagin told Billye Brim, 'As long as you are in this world, you can't keep weapons from being formed against you, but you can keep them from prospering.' Since then, she has studied the subject of the authority of the believer and learned to use it in her own life, family, and ministry. In this special edition mini-book, Dr. Billye Brim gives practical instructions from the Word of God on how we can rise up in the authority and power that is ours to do the work that God intended we should do in the earth. Examines how popular American religious leaders navigate problems of race and gender in society

Is there life after death? After a tragic accident, doctors pronounced Richard Sigmund legally dead. Eight hours later, God miraculously brought him back to life on the way to the morgue. During those hours, God allowed him to experience the glorious beauty, heavenly sounds, sweet aromas, and boundless joys of heaven that await every believer. God then returned him back to earth with a mission to tell the world what he saw. You will thrill to Sigmund's eyewitness accounts of strolling down heaven's streets of gold, seeing angels playing with children, talking with Jesus, meeting with people from the Bible, as well as departed family and friends, seeing the mansions, and much more! Through Sigmund's testimony, God restored sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, and even raised several people from the dead. Also, glimpse into the horrifying reality of "the other place"—a place where no one wants to go.

This new book from Chuck Pierce continues to empower Christians to face the exciting present (and future) for the Church that he began to lay out in The Future War of the Church. Yes, we are in the midst of a battle that will only increase in strength, but the victory has already been promised. Outlining the next 7-year period of spiritual war, 2008-2015, Pierce shows how God will advance His kingdom, causing the faithful to rise up and God's will to be done here on Earth as it is in Heaven. God's Unfolding Battle Plan offers a glimpse into what's ahead, as well as encouragement to triumph over the attending forces of lawlessness, hopelessness, and violence. Discover what God has said to Pierce about the upcoming period and learn how to prosper through strategic intercession, worship warfare, and a powerful new weapon of intercession, the four watches of the night. Remain hopeful knowing you are a part of God's unfolding battle plan, and the best is still ahead.

Fire blazes from heaven, and a stone altar erupts in flame. So begins a spiritual awakening, the kindling of a revival fire still burning today. Beginning with Elijah and God's tremendous one-day revival of Israel, Wesley Duewel tells stories of revivals spanning the globe from America to China to Africa, all brought by obedience and heartfelt prayer. He illustrates how God has used revival fire through the centuries to revive the church and reveal the glorious presence of the Holy Spirit.

In this fascinating autobiography, Billye Brim tells the story of her family's Pentecostal roots and how a God-given directive led her to build Prayer Mountain in the Ozarks. She also shares about: -The roots of Pentecost in America at the beginning of the prophetic 20th century. -What made Tulsa such a spiritual city. -The importance place of prayer in these last days.

How will our heavenly bodies be different? ? Are loved ones there waiting for us and will they recognize us? Each chapter illustrates a biblically accurate and magnificent picture of heaven. The Authority of the Believer urges the faithful Christian to take utmost cognizance in their deeds and words, that their closeness to the Lord be soundly affirmed each day. A sublime series of reflections upon what it is to be a good Christian, 'The Authority of the Believer' allows the reader to deeply contemplate. Reflecting on many of the greatest lessons and deeds depicted in the Bible, together with experiences in his own life, John MacMillan shows us just how powerful and capable a true believer in God can be. Faith, purely held and defended against the temptations and distractions of life, is a tool of immense use—the power of Christ and the Heavenly Lord can serve as a great support. John A. MacMillan was a Canadian politician and a preacher who spent his younger years as an emissary to the Chinese and Asian communities of Western Canada, spending time in both Asia and North America where he spread the good word of Christ.

I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. You will learn: The history of spiritual Awakenings, and the people and events that founded and preserved this special nation. How they relate to the next great Awakening; including the Revival and prayer roots of President Trump. The role of the Church in government affairs. Uniting the Body of Christ in the First of All campaign. The success of this or any future administration falls primarily upon the shoulders of the Body of Christ. Dr. Billye Brim has ministered this revelation thru the various platforms available to her and has now written about it, believing the body of Christ can unite in this prayer effort and overcome the enemy's plot to destroy us through division. "America can finish her God-given course. America can, will, and must reach her destiny. And that depends upon the prayers of God's people. That depends on you and me." --Billye Brim

As a young preacher, Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin asked himself this question. He studied the subject and concluded the following: "We as a Church have authority on the earth that we've never yet realized... A few of us have barely gotten to the edge of that authority, but before Jesus comes again, there's going to be a whole company of believers who will rise up with the authority that is theirs. They will know what is theirs, and they will do the work that God intended they should do." During the past 30 years, over a million readers have been blessed by this classic faith-building message by Rev. Hagin. In his clear and illustrative style, he uses the Word of God to explain the authority that belongs to every believer. Book jacket.

Dr. Billye Brim began her study of Hebrew at a prestigious language school in Israel. Her study of the language has equipped her to explore the deep meaning of the Hebrew Scriptures. Walk in the Spirit, a challenging study by Gloria Copeland, proves that through faith and obedience, you can live a supernatural life on earth every day. "Indeed the Prophet Ezekiel made dire warnings, and descriptions of Israel's dark sins. But Ezekiel was also a priest, and his ministry was priestly in consolation. The Lord gave him translations and visions that prophesied of the promised redemption. He prophesied the end of days return to their Land that we are witnessing now. He foresaw in detail the Millennial Temple, the division of the Land again to the returned Tribes of Israel. The Book ends with the wonderful proclamation that the Glory will be over earthly Jerusalem when its very name shall be Jehovah Shammah, The LORD is There."We are living in what the original Hebrew text of the Bible calls "the end of days." The King James Version translates the phrase as "the latter days." The Bible declares that there is a God-given light of revelation that shines upon the unknown--illuminating the darkness of these days and the days to come. This light is written down for us, primarily in the Books of the Old Testament Prophets. We are advised to "take heed unto them." For they are "a light that shineth" in the dark places of what is now past to us, and of the present, and the future. Yechezkel, Ezekiel, is one of the most enlightening of those Books of the Prophets. In it you will find brilliant light on these days and the days to come. And you will see a revelation of the Shechinah Glory you may never have seen. This study booklet, with outlines and comments by Dr. Billye Brim highlighting key passages of each chapter of The Book of Ezekiel, will bring light and understanding to this often misunderstood book of the Bible.
