Benjamin's Sale of Goods provides practitioners with high level comprehensive advice on case law and legislation regarding sale of goods internationally.

This new Guide to the Consumer Credit Act 2006 covers all of the new provisions, together with discussion of the growing importance of the internet and electronic technology to this area of the law, whilst also placing the new Act in the context of what has gone before. The commentary in the Guide is structured in a clear and logical way, thus enabling readers to quickly access the information they require.

Dealing with all insurance risks other than marine, this text contains sections on insurable interest, non-disclosure, reinsurance, conflict of laws and policy terms. It also includes the Unfair Terms in Consumer Contract Regulations 1994 and the Rome Convention on Conflict of Laws.

Contains text of Bullen & Leake & Jacob's Precedents of pleadings, 14th ed. This database combines commentary (UKCP-BLJ-COMMENT) and forms and precedents (UK-BLJ-PREC) from the treatise.

The Civil Procedure Rules place great emphasis on the written presentation of trial materials and increase the propensity for cases to be decided on the papers. Yet the Civil Procedure Rules themselves offer little guidance on the drafting of statements of case. The 14th edition of this text aims to fill this gap, offering a stock of authoritative, structured precedents, complete with guiding commentary.

This fourth cumulative supplement brings the 6th edition up to date with the latest developments in the law.

Bailey and Groves: Corporate Insolvency - Law and Practice is a leading commentary on the substantive law of corporate insolvency and practical guidance on the various procedures arising in this important field. Written by recognised experts in the field, it remains a user-friendly text covering all aspects of corporate insolvency in one volume and is accessible to both legal and accountancy practitioners. The new edition includes: * Updated content to reflect substantial changes to the Insolvency Rules - due to be released in October 2016 and implemented in April 2017 * New relevant provisions of legislation since the last edition including the Small Business Enterprise Act 2015 and Deregulation Act 2015 * Coverage of amendments to the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 by the Deregulation Act 2015 and the Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015

A practical guide to drafting pleadings.

Pleadings Without Tears has become established as one of the most successful books on practical legal drafting in the context of litigation. This new eighth edition is fully updated to take account of Civil Procedure Rule (CPR) changes since the last edition. The book takes a practical and insightful look at the subject of legal drafting, enabling the reader to become more confident in approaching this often unnecessarily daunting subject. It focuses on core skills and fundamental rules while clearly addressing each stage of the process and goes beyond a straightforward setting out of the precedents and authorities relevant to statements of case. It gives clear examples of how to set out relevant matters with clarity and precision and encourages the reader to give full consideration to concise and clear identification of the subject matter of the action, the issues of the case and the parties' respective positions in respect to those issues. With a wealth of practical examples and anecdotes - and illustrated throughout with cartoons - the light and entertaining style, combined with detailed analysis and

The Rt Hon Professor Sir Robin Jacob has been variously a leading member of the Intellectual Property Bar, a High Court judge and, as Lord Justice Jacob, a judge in the Court of Appeal of England and Wales. His primary area of expertise is intellectual property (IP) rights. He chose to leave the Court of Appeal in March 2011 to take up his current position as the Sir Hugh Laddie Chair in intellectual property at University College London. Besides teaching and writing he still sits occasionally in the Court of Appeal, sits as an arbitrator, provides expert evidence, chairs the Advisory Committee on the Appointment and Training of the Judges of the Unified Patent Court and often advises the UK Government and EU Commission on IP matters. These essays and speeches, selected from his published and unpublished writings and lectures, illustrate the breadth of his learning in IP and other matters. They are written in typically straightforward and entertaining style and, in the case of the older essays, include a commentary of what has happened since they were first published. They will be of interest to any lawyer, law student or scholar interested in the development of IP law in the past quarter century or so.
