Wade Nash is lonely. He lost his wife, Catherine, to a car accident after moving down to central Florida to live out their dream life. Dream shattered, this ex-Marine and private investigator has to find something to fill his time. As an avid fisherman, he decides to start his own charter business. Then, in the beautiful confines of Wade's new state, a woman is found murdered. Now, Wade's retirement is interrupted as he's requested down in Southern Florida to investigate. He answers the call, hungry for something to do. Plus, Wade always did love the thrill of the hunt.
