Educators interested in examining and improving grading practices should ask the following questions: * Am I confident that students in my classroom receive consistent, accurate and meaningful grades that support learning? * Am I confident that the grades I assign students accurately reflect my school or district's published performance standards and desired learning outcomes? In many schools, the answers to these questions often range from "not very" to "not at all." When that's the case, grades are "broken" and teachers and schools need a "repair kit" to fix them. A Repair Kit for Grading: 15 Fixes for Broken Grades, 2/e gives teachers and administrators 15 ways to make the necessary repairs. Are you saying right now DAMN THOSE (Bleeping) CREDIT BUREAU'S? Are those Credit Bureaus stopping you from getting: AN APARTMENT: Sorry here is your damage deposit back your credit application was not approved but thanks for the $30.00 credit application fee. EMPLOYMENT: Sorry you are qualified and we really liked your interview, but after seeing your credit report we will be going a different route. AUTOMOBILE: Well we did get you approved but unfortunately the down payment we talked about will be significantly more. Your monthly payment will also be $168 more a month. We understand that's not financially possible for you but if things change let us know. There is a bus stop about a block away thanks for coming in and help yourself to a cup of coffee on your way out. HOUSE: You seem like a nice couple and it's great you are expecting your first child soon but unfortunately we can't get you the mortgage we advertised everywhere. You might want to try those companies online that charge insane interest rates and want a huge deposit as well as your first born child. Thanks for coming in and would you mind filling out a survey online about how well we served you today? A good friend of mine is a divorce attorney. He knows what I do so whenever we get together the subject always seems to go to credit. He told me he's shocked at how much "spouse has bad credit" comes up during a divorce. He says it's always an issue women have. We have deducted that women love to nest. They want security (I guess we didn't have to be rocket scientist to figure that out). So anyway STOP RIGHT NOW AND SCROLL TO THE TOP OF THE PAGE AND BUY THIS BOOK SO WE CAN GET STARTED. Is that being forward enough? Seriously we are talking about the cost of a cup of Starbucks coffee. By the way Starbucks in no way endorses my book lol. Howard Schultz the chairman and CEO of Starbucks I'm sure doesn't have credit issues. So if you are still here you might need some more convincing I guess. Good for you... due diligence. My name is John D. Harris I could go on and on here about my experience working as a credit bureau manager but I won't bore you with all the details. THIS REALLY IS NOT ABOUT ME ANYWAYS. IT'S ABOUT YOU AND YOUR CREDIT. Even though your credit affects your whole life experience you probably know very little about real credit repair. Most of the books I have read online about credit repair are out of date or more often than not don't really have a clue what is going on. Let's face it all are lives are on a clock that is always ticking. Tick Tock Tick Tock. THIS IS NOT A PRACTICE RUN. This is your one life. Every day with bad credit is a day you are not experiencing your full life experience. Imagine knowing you have great credit. You know when you talk to the guy in the suit that you have great credit. You know you will be approved for anything. You can shop around for the best rates. You have the best property and pay less than the guy with the dumpy property. You drive the best car for less than the poor guy driving the seven-year-old vehicle. You might start flipping property. You might buy a business on credit. People respect you because you are the baller, you can get things done because you have access to CREDIT. You can take advantage of great deals because you have CREDIT. My bet is that you know more about cooking a turkey, changing your oil, what's on Netflix, Geography, Donald Trump, Words of a different language, Facebook, etc. THAN YOU DO ABOUT REAL CREDIT REPAIR. I guarantee you can have good credit PS: I am a real person, with my book I include my phone number and email. You will also get unlimited access to my members only website with so many valuable resources. John D. Harris

The Servant of God Luisa Piccarreta was born in Corato in the Province of Bari, Italy on April 23, 1865 and died there in the odor of sanctity on March 4, 1947. Luisa from her very birth was given a Mystical life, for example, at the age of 17 she received the Mystical Union that Saint John of the Cross, Saint Teresa of Avila and Saint Catherine of Siena received right before they died. After this Mystical Union Jesus asked Luisa if she would stay in bed and because of her Fiat!, He taught Luisa about the Life of the Divine Will forming It first in her. For the next 64 years until her death Luisa stayed in bed basically not eating, drinking or sleeping. Luisa was nourished by receiving the Most Holy Eucharist during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass daily said in her room. This special blessing was given by Pope Saint Pious X and Pope Leo XIII his predecessor. Luisa also lived on the food of the Divine Will, which Jesus said in the Gospels, a food that you do not know of . During that time through great sufferings and a sublime call to holiness Jesus taught Luisa about the fulfillment of the Our Father, the prayer that Jesus taught His Apostles. "...Your Will be done on earth as in Heaven..." Jesus taught Luisa that now is the time for the Kingdom of God to reign on earth as in Heaven. Jesus dictated 36 Volumes of the doctrine of the Divine Will, which He gave the title "The Kingdom of the Fiat in the Midst of Creatures. Book of Heaven -- The Recall of the Creature into the Order, to Its Place and into the Purpose for Which He was Created by God, to teach Luisa how to Live in the Divine Will, this is different than the devotional life of the Saints which is doing the Will of God. In humble obedience Luisa under the constant direction of the Church faithfully wrote all that Jesus Himself wanted her to put down on paper. This would be not only for herself but for those who would read it, so that they too could Live in the Divine Will as Luisa learned how to Live in the Divine Will by putting into practice these Truths taught by Jesus and Mary. In addition to the 36 Volumes Jesus dictated the book, The Hours of the Passion and Our Lady dictated the book, Virgin Mary in the Kingdom of the Divine Will to Luisa. Jesus told her Confessor, Saint Annibale Maria Di Francia, through Luisa that these 36 Volumes are to be called: The Book of Heaven. Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Annibale and declared him to be the Saint for our time to pray to for Vocations. Yet, Saint Annibale himself stated in Messina on February 14, 1927: Know that I no longer occupy myself with almost anything of the other things of my Institutes, since I dedicated myself completely to the great Work of the Divine Will. I talk about it with people of (docile) spirit; I engage in conversation about this topic with whomever I best can; I promote it as much as I can, even in my Institutes.

We all know the basics of punctuation. Or do we? A look at most neighborhood signage tells a different story. Through sloppy usage and low standards on the internet, in email, and now text messages, we have made proper punctuation an endangered species. In Eats, Shoots & Leaves, former editor Lynne Truss dares to say, in her delightfully urbane, witty, and very English way, that it is time to look at our commas and semicolons and see them as the wonderful and necessary things they are. This is a book for people who love punctuation and get upset when it is mishandled. From the invention of the question mark in the time of Charlemagne to George Orwell shunning the semicolon, this lively history makes a powerful case for the preservation of a system of printing conventions that is much too subtle to be mucked about with. If your personal financial knowledge is limited, you're probably not at fault. Personal Finance 101 isn't offered in our schools - not in high school and not even in the best colleges and graduate programs. It should be. (Of course, if it were, I wouldn't be able to write fun and useful books such as this - or maybe they'd use this book in the course!) People keep making the same common financial mistakes over and over - procrastinating and lack of planning, wasteful spending, falling prey to financial salespeople and pitches, failing to do sufficient research before making important financial decisions, and so on. This book can keep you from falling into the same traps and get you going on the best paths. As unfair as it may seem, numerous pitfalls await you when you seek help for your financial problems. The world is filled with biased and bad financial advice. As a practicing financial counselor and now as a writer, I constantly see and hear about the consequences of poor advice. Of course, every profession has bad apples, but too many of the people calling themselves "financial planners" have conflicts of interest and an inadequate competence level. All too often, financial advice ignores the big picture and focuses narrowly on investing. Because money is not an end in itself but a part of your whole life, this book helps connect your financial goals and challenges to the rest of your life. You need a broad understanding of personal finance to include all areas of your financial life: spending, taxes, saving and investing, insurance, and planning for major goals like education, buying a home, and retirement.....You want to know the best places to go for your circumstances, so this book contains specific, tried-and-proven recommendations. I also suggest where to turn next if you need more information and help.
