Will that extend to a single father ready to trust in love again?

The 20th century heralded the greatest technological changes of any century. My Dad lived through virtually all of it - from 1898 to 1997. He served in two world wars and raised two families. Even though my Dad was a quiet man, he shared with me his stories and he shared with me his soul. His advice was always sage and he took a deep interest in the lives of his children, his grandchildren and his great grandchildren. Aside from his military service, he was a self employed man - home builder, farmer, logger. This book views the 20th century through his eyes. For me it was a labour of love and an opportunity to revisit the many lessons I learned through knowing him, his life, his hopes, his dreams and his disappointments. His only regret in life was not completing his science degree at Queen's University. He was in the class of '23, enrolling after returning from his overseas service in World War I in which all three of his brothers were wounded. He rarely talked about war, except to say it was a waste. Dad had a great sense of humour. He loved to read and enjoyed good movies and in his later years we watched many movies together. But mostly he worked hard. He always did whatever was necessary, but only after thinking the task through and figuring out the best way to accomplish his goals.

Single Cowboy Seeks Perfect Match! Rust Creek Ramblings Everyone knows Rust Creek Falls is a good place to find love, but handsome ranching man Zach Dalton is not leaving anything to chance. His classified ad in the Rust Creek Falls Gazette has the whole town buzzing. The offer? No less than lifetime commitment...for the perfect pie-baking, domestically inclined long-haired bride. One woman who definitely does not fit the job description is Gazette assistant editor Lydia Grant—curly-haired, independent and admittedly useless in the kitchen. Yet we here at the Gazette have seen definite sparks between the marriage-minded cowboy and the girl who is so not his “type.” Could Zach Dalton have already met his Mrs. Right? Clear your calendars, dear readers. We're convinced there's another wedding on the way!

Published for devotees of the cowboy and the West, American Cowboy covers all aspects of the Western lifestyle, delivering the best in entertainment, personalities, travel, rodeo

FRIENDS WITH...BENEFITS? Sophie Fortune Robinson is on a mission. The word around the office watercooler is that the boss's youngest daughter is intent on landing Mr. Right by Valentine's Day—and that she has her eyes, and heart, set on a certain hunk in Marketing. But when she enlists her longtime pal and coworker Mason Montgomery to teach her how to get a man to notice her, little does she know she's already captured his attention! Now Mason's in a real bind! He has just a few short weeks to fight his way out of the "friend zone." On his agenda: convincing sweet Sophie that he is the real man of her dreams! Will Fortune smile on true love's venture?

A Truly Yours Digital Edition. . .Trauma nurse Dina Spark knows how devastating rodeo injuries can be. Her father, a bitter former bull rider, is living proof. One thing Dina will not do is become involved with a rodeo man. Will Martin's father abandoned his wife and four children, making Will the man of the family at the age of ten. Years later Will is trying to pay off the mortgage on the family ranch by being the best bull rider around. With only one year to go on the debt, Will is injured by the meanest bull on the circuit and ends up in Dina's care. Has God thrown these two together for a reason? With months of physical therapy ahead of him, Will must choose between returning to the circuit or hanging up his rodeo spurs. And Dina must decide whether to trust God or to run from the chance of falling in love.

Football's Braveheart is the riveting life story of Dave Mackay, the fearless, skilled, heroic and barrel-chested left-half who was an icon for Spurs, Hearts, Derby and Scotland. Off the field, Dave was a humble, fair-minded, sociable man. On it, he was an out-and-out winner, a warrior and inspiration with consummate ball skills and intelligence. The heartbeat of Spurs' double-winning side of 1961, he came back after two broken legs to add to a glittering trophy collection started at Hearts. After his playing career, Mackay distinguished himself as a title-winning manager with Derby County. A legends' legend, he was lauded by George Best as the hardest and bravest opponent he ever faced. Fabled managers Bill Nicholson (Spurs) and Brian Clough (Derby) hailed him as their best signing, and other admirers included Jimmy Greaves, Denis Law and Sir Alex Ferguson. Author Mike Donovan has gained exclusive, first-hand insights from those who knew Mackay best to bring you the definitive story of a man who made an indelible mark on football.

The Lawman Lassoos A Family -- Rachel Lee After her policeman husband died on duty, Vicki Templeton swore off lawmen -- both for herself and her young daughter. Krystal can't lose another father figure and Vicki refuses to put them both to such pain again. But when she moves to Conard County, Wyoming, Vicki's heart is on the line when she meets her handsome neighbour. Widower sheriff's deputy Dan Casey knows loss. When the cowboy comes to meet his baby at Stallion Canyon, Mariah Montgomery doubts his motives. Until a DNA test is done, she'll observe Finn at her ranch. Unexpectedly, Finn agrees and helps Mariah revitalise her failing ranch and work with her wild mustangs. As his love for her nephew grows, their mutual passion reaches new heights. But when Finn finally proposes, is he securing the ranch for himself? Can Mariah trust that he truly wants to build a family with her and baby Harry?

The prettiest rancher he'd ever seen In her wildest dreams, Tessa Parker never expected to inherit a ranch. But as soon as she sets foot on the Bar X, the orphaned Tessa finally feels at home. And that brusque deputy sherriff who greets her? There's something about him, too, that makes the rootless Tessa want to stake a claim. Law and order make Joseph Hollister's world go round. So when a Tessa from Nevada says she's the rightful heir to his old friend's ranch, it turns his universe upside down. Not to mention every fiber of his being, which thrums each time she's near. But Joseph won't get close to a woman who's only passing through. Even though Tessa might be the only one who can repair his heart...

TAMING THE WILD COWBOY Nothing shocks horse trainer Finn Calhoun more than learning he's the father of a four-month-old boy! And when the tall, dark, spur-jangling cowboy arrives in Stallion Canyon to meet his baby, Mariah Montgomery has her doubts about his motives. Until a DNA test is done, she insists Finn stay at her ranch—where she can keep an eye on him. Contrary to his image, Finn is only too happy to oblige Mariah—and help to revitalize her own failing ranch and work with her wild mustangs. As his love for her nephew grows, their mutual passions reach new heights, too. But when Finn finally proposes, is he just looking to secure the ranch—for himself? Or can Mariah trust that he truly wants to build a family with her and baby Harry?

She can tame any wild stallion... but can she change this cowboy's mind? Rancher Holt Hollister has no interest in selling his horses to new neighbor Isabelle Townsend. The petite blonde looks like she stepped off a runway, not a ranch. Yet Isabelle is determined to prove she can hold her own—both in and out of the saddle. Holt may have finally met his match, but is he ready to be the man Isabelle needs to make her dreams come true?

He'll sing a new tune this Christmas! Divorced and raising two boys on her own is a far cry from the big family Marcella Grayson always imagined. Then she meets tall, dark and delicious Denver Yates—and the attraction is overwhelming! Still, Marcella is cautious. It takes a lot of man to date a single mom, let alone build a relationship...or a family. After losing his wife and unborn child, Denver has sworn off the family life—especially kids. Yet lovely Marcella and her boys find a way into this cowboy's heart. But when their passion lights up the plus sign on the test stick, Denver is stunned. Is this a snare set by Marcella? Or is it the Christmas wish they've been too afraid to make?
