Disha Children's Yearbook 2018 - General Knowledge Fundamentals and Current Affairs Disha Publications

Dear all, Disha Prabha is the connecting link of this series and has a special significance too. Thus, I commence this series with the etymology of the name. When we (the lazy, intellectual better half that I am married to and the earnest me) were searching for an ideal name for my counseling practice, we tried various permutations and combinations, for a word or phrase that meant 'to throw light on' or 'to guide' or 'to give direction' because as a counselor, that was my ideal job description. The other thought which we were consciously coming back to was a name that would have the family members in it (the four of us), so that one name would suffice as our house sign board and my practice title. Thus, Disha Prabha came into being. Disha means direction or way, and Praha means illumination or radiance. This was just perfect; counselling is all about 'lighting the way' or lending 'radiance to direction.' More importantly, Disha is a combination of Di, Dinesh (the boss of the family), and Sha, Sharanya (the author). Prabha is put together with Pra, Pranav (our son), and Bha, Bhargavi (our daughter). So in unanimous consensus, we chose this name. Most of my writings are experiences or moments shared with these three people. It is but obvious that they make an appearance everywhere in this book and all the other books that will follow. This book is the first of the Disha Prabha series. And I give my thanks to Sahaj Marg (the meditation path I follow and teach). My Disha received Prabha from this path, and I owe everything to this path.

"It just happened." "I don't know what I was doing." "It happened without my knowledge." These are things that one generally hears when people talk about forbidden love. One is never in control of oneself especially when something is forbidden and in fact only realizes the depth of it when something goes wrong. This is the story about how Namitas life takes a drastic turn after an innocent encounter with someone she knew since childhood.

"Civil society organisations play an increasingly important role in analysing government budget policies and in advocating for more transparent and inclusive budget processes in transitional and developing countries. Drawing on case studies of six budget groups across Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America, this book is the first comprehensive study of the impact and significance of civic initiatives aimed at enhancing budget transparency and the poverty focus of government expenditure priorities. Achievements include improvements in the transparency of budgetary decisions, increased budget awareness and literacy, and deeper engagement in the budget process on the part of legislators, the media and civil society organisations. The case studies in this book show how budget groups produce greater equity in budget policies and strengthen democracy by fostering accountability, enhancing transparency and deepening participation and voice."--BOOK JACKET.

What is the secret sauce of the company that innovated and launched more than 40 products in the first six months of the pandemic? How did a home services company train its contractual workforce to keep the highest safety standards when they visited the customer's home? How did a stock broking company scale its technology to handle its highest single-day trading? How did a famous fashion designer generate employment in the times when many of his peers were laying off their artisans? How did real estate move to a virtual world? How did an internet provider afford to maintain continuity for the thousands working from home? In Inflection Point, business leaders across diverse industries and leading companies of different scales share candid accounts on the challenges and opportunities in this new pandemic-stricken world as well as their response as leaders and as individuals. The book features stories of conglomerates such as ITC, Shapoorji Pallonji Group, Manipal Hospitals, Emerson Automation as well as start-ups such as Zerodha, Urban Company (aka UrbanClap), among others. While told from the point of view of the coronavirus pandemic, each story in this book has many subtle leadership lessons-lessons that will remain true for any future crisis.

So, I'm DD and I'm going to be rich and famous because I'm making a film on (hold the phone still, will ya?) high school life. All the secrets, fights, crazy exam pressure, brainiacs and show offs (not you, not you!). Only, everyone wants to be the star (hey you, get out off the frame!). It's got drama and hysterics, historic, sorry, histrionics. And my mom's got Mr Horns. And I still haven't got a boyfriend or a dog. And then, the lurker appears. And it all gets super scary. And he's coming closer - so I've gotta run. Fast. Bye! See ya inside! The first book of the biting funny UNCOOL series - a rib-tickling tackling of teen issues!
