This book was first projected in 2004, when Author Hannah Fairbairn was teaching interpersonal skills at the Carroll Center for the Blind in Newton, Massachusetts. The experiences of her adult students—and her own experience of sight lost—convinced her that everyone losing vision needs access to good information about the process of adjustment to losing sight and practical ways to use assertive speech. When You Can't Believe Your Eyes is intended for anyone going through vision loss, their friends, and families. It will inform readers how to get expert professional help, face the trauma of loss, and navigate the world using speech more than sight. Each of the twelve chapters in the book contain many short sections and bullet-point lists, intended to facilitate access to the right information. It begins where you begin—at the doctor's office or the hospital. Since vision loss takes many forms, there are suggestions for questions you might ask to get a clear diagnosis and the best treatment. Part One also has a description of legal blindness and possible prevention, advice about your job, and tips for life at home. Part Two is about believing in yourself as you deal with the loss, the anger, and the fear before you come up for air and consider training. Parts Three and Four describe using assertive speech and action in all kinds of settings as your independence and confidence increase. Part Five gives detailed information about everything from dating, and caring for babies to senior living, volunteering, and retaining your job. It is hoped that by reading and trying out the suggestions, the reader will recover full confidence, become a positive, assertive communicator, and lead a satisfying life. Because vision loss happens mostly in older years, the book is written with seniors particularly in mind. Professionals will also find it to be a useful resource for their patients. Learn the tricks of an international make-up artist with Jemma Kidd Make-Up Masterclass, the bestselling guide to becoming a pro at home. Color Theory for the Make-up Artist: Understanding Color and Light for Beauty and Special Effects analyzes and explains traditional color theory for fine artists and applies it to the make-up artist. This book is suitable for both professionals and beginners who wish to train their eye further to understand and recognize distinctions in color. It explains why we see color, how to categorize and identify color, relationships between colors, and it relates these concepts to beauty and special effects make-up. The book teaches the reader how to mix flesh tones by using only primary colors, and explains how these colors in paints and make-up are sourced and created. It also discusses the reason for variations in skin colors and undertones, and how to identify and match these using make-up, while choosing flattering colors for the eyes, lips, and cheeks. Colors found inside the body are explained for special effects make-up, like why we bruise, bleed, or appear sick. Ideas and techniques are also described for painting prosthetics, in addition to using color as inspiration in make-up designs. The book also discusses how lighting affects color on film, television, theater, and photography sets, and how to properly light a workspace for successful applications.

"How To Apply Makeup Like A Professional" is another in the series of books on makeup from Lisa Patrick. Through her, readers have learned how to do basic makeup to get to work and to run about and do errands or even to go out at night. She takes thing a bit further in this book and highlights certain tips and tricks that a person can use to have that professional look when they apply their makeup. Having the professional look involves a certain number of processes from the tools that are used to the makeup that is selected and how it is applied. The main thing to learn is that specific types of makeup will have a certain effect. It is therefore important to select carefully. The brushes and sponges also have to be selected carefully and all of this is expounded upon in the book. It serves as a great guide to help women look even better.

Make-up is enormously adaptable, as far as hues and items, as well as far as how it is worn. While some wear make-up to make a huge and sensational appearance, others will wear make-up more unobtrusively. Make-up can be worn in a wide assortment of circumstances, extending from work, occasions, evenings out, and even simply round the house on the off chance that you so covet. Thus of such assorted qualities, the make-up industry is gigantic, implying that everyone ought to have the capacity to discover items that they would need to wear and be seen donning. Be that as it may, the way that make-up is connected fluctuates almost no between circumstances. Most make-up specialists take after a similar standard, intended to improve the timeframe that the make-up keeps going when worn. This standard directs that in the first place, before you even apply a drop of make-up, you ought to guarantee that your face is perfect and washed. Improve up will make due on a perfect face, free from common oils. Ensure too that your eyebrows are formed how you need them to be, and are free from any stray hairs. Next, concentrate on your skin. Apply fluid establishment, and afterward concealed. Next, apply free powder to guarantee that your skins are totally matt. Concealed can differ in when it is connected, and can be connected after the powder. At long last, you can apply blusher to your cheeks. Once your skin is looking flawless, you can move onto your eyes. To start with apply your picked eye shadow, or eye shadows, and mix this if requirements be. When you eye shadow has been connected, proceed onward to eye liner, be that fluid or pencil. In the event that you need to utilize eyebrow pencil, this can take after the eye liner. To complete your eyes, utilize mascara to finish the look. At long last, you go to your lips. Obviously, this standard will change from individual to individual, and some may favor not to stick to it by any means. This routine is straightforward a proposal in how best to apply make-up. Attempt to apply the bases of the make-up in the first place, for example, establishment or eye shadow, as not exclusively will they last more, they will likewise direct how different items will be included. More fragile items ought to be connected last, for example, blusher, as they won't survive different items being included top of them. These fundamental guidelines of make-up will help you to maximize your make-up, and guarantee you are looking great.
