the story was inspired by true events out of East Palo Alto. I'm explaining a real life street story about a town that became the Murder Capital of the world. The main characters are Madlock, DP, KK and Money T. The four men grew up together and remained loyal to each other over the years. They formed there own roguish living B.M.B street name which involved drugs, guns, murders, crime, cars, fights, parties, pretty women and a record label. This is my story and this is The B.M.B Creed. ..".It's always a blessing when making it through the threshold. It's like walking through a portal stepping into the unknown, knowing all the things you've done in the past places a tattoo scar upon your life. Something like an emotional shadow that lingers over head. A dark cloud waiting for the moment to rain down on you with no remorse. How many of us really last in the game before Lucifer is resurrected in the spirit of someone that's scorned. Then it's not about the money, it's about the redemption of your soul. It becomes your turn to beg and plead for your life, asking for forgiveness speaking to deaf ears of no understanding. Pain, blame, loss and disgrace is replaced by the taste of sweetness knowing that you will be found face down in bad weather..." These men never disregarded the fact this would someday happen to them. This was the life they choose to live. Roguish livin BLACK MONEY BUSNIESS. U.S. media in 1992. Eye survived the street war. A dazzling new anthology of the very best very short fiction from around the world. What is a flash fiction called in other countries? In Latin America it is a micro, in Denmark kortprosa, in Bulgaria mikro razkaz. These short shorts, usually no more than 750 words, range from linear narratives to the more unusual: stories based on mathematical forms, a paragraph-length novel, a scientific report on volcanic fireflies that proliferate in nightclubs. Flash has always—and everywhere—been a form of experiment, of possibility. A new entry in the lauded Flash and Sudden Fiction anthologies, this collection includes 86 of the most beautiful, provocative, and moving narratives by authors from six continents, including best-selling writer Etgar Keret, Zimbabwean writer Petina Gappah, Korean screenwriter Kim Young-ha, Nobel Prize winner Czeslaw Milosz, and Argentinian “Queen of the Microstory” Ana María Shua, among many others. These brilliantly chosen stories challenge readers to widen their vision and celebrate both the local and the universal.

Eleven talented authors challenged with just one condition—tell ten stories in exactly 434 words each. Flash fiction in a streamlined package. Quick hitting pieces across several different genres designed to highlight the craft and art of modern storytelling. Names you may be familiar with, like R. MonaLeza, Corey Michael Smithson, Paul Grimsley, and Jinxie G, combined with some of the most promising artists- Michael Lawrence, Amy Kay, Ben Umstead, John P. Marentay, Broadie Thornton, Rob CL, and Angel Ashton-makes this an anthology you won't want to miss.

Will Timomathon survive the war raging within Infinity to be able to return to Humanland? Will Anna escape justice when she seeks revenge for the death of her husband? What type of justice does she fear? Journey from the expected to the unexpected, the natural to the supernatural. Decide whether there is a logical explanation. Laugh at the humour, shed a tear at the sorrow, ponder at the reflections and, on occasion, let your mind leave reality behind.

The problem with fighting death is that you will eventually lose. Eric has provoked the fury of no fewer than three grim reapers and now they're after his life. Leading the charge is his old foe, Gruffle. Flanked by an army of ghosts and nature spirits, and supported by Lord Death himself, Gruffle's victory is guaranteed. Eric's only hope of survival is to transcend the limitations of both mortality and magecraft, and fight the hostile gods as an equal. Chaotic deities support him in his endeavor but they might be a greater danger than the reapers.

dream of a clean Brotherhood. Everyone is working and living peacefully within their drug free neighborhoods and community. They raise their kids to take care of each other and treat their women with respect. Kate runs the Women's Center within the MC's backyard. Ben admires Kate's strength, ability, and compassion running the Center and adopting kids from the shelters that would have gone into the system. Danny, Kate's husband, is Ben's Building Supervisor and number two High Security enforcer when he's needed. He's proven himself and earned respect from his Brothers and Ben. When Ben's old lady leaves he moves a few houses away from Kate and her family. He finds himself drawn to them and starts to wonder if he'll ever find a woman like Kate to share his life with. This is the story of Ben, Kate, and Danny. **Content Warning: includes graphic language and sex, including m/f/m. Intended for mature audiences 18+**

This volume is the first in a series of full-length English translations from one of the foremost classics in Daoist religious literature, the Zhen gao or Declarations of the Perfected. The Declarations is a collection of poems, accounts of the dead, instructions, and meditation methods received by the Daoist Yang Xi (330–ca. 386 BCE) from celestial beings and shared by him with his patrons and students. These fragments of revealed material were collected and annotated by the eminent scholar and Daoist Tao Hongjing (456–536), allowing us access to these distant worlds and unfamiliar strategies of self-perfection. Bokenkamp's full translation highlights the literary nature of Daoist revelation and the place of the Declarations in the development of Chinese letters. It further details interactions with the Chinese throne and the aristocracy and demonstrates ways that Buddhist borrowings helped shape Daoism much earlier than has been assumed. This first volume also contains heretofore unrecognized reconfigurations of Buddhist myth and practice that Yang Xi introduced to his Daoist audience.

presents a brief historical background of fluorescence in relation to the development of the two-pigment-system concept of photosynthesis and indicates the significance of fluorescence measurements in the study of photosynthesis. Other chapters consider mitochondrial ion transport, its relation to active transport in cells, and its possible effects on muscle contraction. This book discusses as well the concept of uncoupling in oxidative phosphorylation. The reader is also introduced to the biochemical basis of luminescence, which has been investigated in several organisms. The final chapter deals with the study of mitochondrial cations and of the cation transport. This book is a valuable resource for biochemists, molecular biologists, scientists, and research workers.

Ben and Billy Mac have saltwater running through their veins. Not only do they love the fishing life in their coastal town of York, Maine, but they are the best of friends. Born just days apart in 1949, they are truly like true brothers, as close as blood can be. But life holds different promises for these two young men. Ben, whose father died at sea before he was born, quit school at age thirteen to help support his mother. Billy is a star hockey player on the high school team and accepts an offer to play at Boston College. During this time of international turmoil, Ben receives his draft letter and is sent to Vietnam as an army ranger. While Ben is fighting the war in Vietnam, Billy fights his own war on the ice, and moral and physical challenges lead him down a dark path. To See a Green Flash follows these two best friends as their life's paths diverge. Telling the tales of fishing and the toll of war, author Corky Decker captures the heart and soul of a small, New England fishing community and the unbreakable bonds of friendship.

represented by 8 long horizontal blocks and 8 long vertical blocks, with each long horizontal block and each long vertical block consists of 8 small boxes, which give the total of 64 boxes. Each long horizontal or long vertical block which consists of 8 boxes must contain one of the numbers from 1 to 8 inclusively without repeating any thereof - This is Rule One. The main puzzle with 64 boxes is also alternatively represented by 4 sub-puzzles which are called Quadrants and each quadrant is made up of 4x4 short blocks. For Rule Two in any of the 4 quadrants, after having complied with Rule One, each block, consists of 4 boxes, must be added up to the sum of 18 horizontally, vertically and diagonally. An engaging and frank guide to writing the very short story, full of sound advice, exemplary models, and provocative exercises. The history of fiction has been dominated by the novel and the short story. But now a brave new genre has emerged: very brief fiction. FLASH! identifies the qualities that make for excellent flash fiction, demystifies the writing process, and guides writers by exercise and example through the world of the very short story. John Dufresne's characteristic warmth, wit, and humor remind writers of the joy in the creative process, making this a perfect guide for any writer interested in trying a new form.
