The End times Bible Handbook is a guide to the Biblical record of the past and how the past has influenced near future events! The next prophetic event on God's calendar is the Rapture! Whatever year it happens, the Rapture will happen at the end of Rosh Hashanah, "at the sound of the last trump", at sundown. The Rapture is the evacuation of believers off of our planet before the Tribulation begins. 10 days after the Rapture (10 Days of Awe), on Yom Kippur, the Antichrist will guarantee the covenant of Rabin for 7 years. That is the day that they shall say... "Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them". (1 Thessalonians 5:3) "Sudden" means "blindsided"! That is the beginning of 7 years of Satanic Genocide, Terror, War, Famine, pestilence, strange weather, earthquakes, volcanos, beheadings and 28 Judgments of God! Or you could just say Jihad. The Bible describes Islam as the Religion of the Antichrist that will rule the world for the last three and a half years of the Tribulation. The real Jesus will return at Armageddon to save the remnants of believers! And ... "whosoever calleth upon the name of the Lord shall be saved". (Joel 2:32) Just Faith!

A Pattern of Prayer is a guide to prayer based on the daily, weekly, and occasional prayers of an intentional, ecumenical, Christian community called Grace and Main Fellowship in Danville, Virginia. It's designed to cultivate a rhythm to the life of prayer either in groups or by individuals. Providing a structure for morning, midday, evening, and night prayer, it is an excellent devotional aid that also allows the reader, or readers, to pray along with others wherever they may be. Also included are some of the prayers and blessings used in the work of the community, as well as the community's "identity statements" or "little rule." To make use of the prayerbook, all you'll need, in addition to the book, is a Bible.

Why is it that our spiritual disciplines feel so dutiful and routine most of the time? We are called to delight in Him, to draw near and enjoy Him and yet that seems far from most of our realities. There are many fine written works describing the need, purpose, and methods of spiritual disciplines. Knowing Grace complements these by fostering and deepening the reader's engagement with God through various means of grace. By using this terminology, "means of grace" a rightful emphasis is placed on God's initiation, invitation, and empowering to engage with Him in ways that foster a greater sensitivity to His movements, stirrings, nudges and voice. By growing more familiar with being in His presence, one experiences more of His grace, moving us from duty to delight.

There's more to college than classes, credits, and a nonstop social life. It's more than getting a degree to improve one's job prospects. College is a time where students develop into the adults they will be for the rest of their lives, a time to explore the big questions about life and human destiny, a time when they form their character and faith. The perfect gift for high school graduation, Make College Count helps students make the most of their time in college. It encourages young people to ask important questions of themselves, such as Why are you going to college? What kind of person do you want to be? How do you want your life to influence others? With whom will you surround yourself? What do you believe? and more

Rev. James Turner takes his job seriously. As pastor of Lindenport Christian Church, he makes sure his congregation are spiritually fed and that their needs are met, especially during the holidays. Thanksgiving, Advent, and Christmas Eve services are a mainstay to the Christian faith. At Lindenport Christian Church, it's no different. The Thanksgiving community dinner and decorating committees have the church decked out for the holidays. Pastor James' faith is challenged when a beautiful female parishioner confides in him about her past, putting both of them and their loved ones in danger. The magical beauty and wonder of Christmas Eve is a perfect backdrop for remembering God's continued protection through adversity.

Have you ever been to a "Bible study" that didn't have much "Bible" or "study" at all? Without a proper understanding of how to do it, students can be disappointed or scared away from studying the Bible. So what is Bible study—and can it work for high schoolers? No stranger to teaching the Bible to teenagers, Jon Nielson confirms that real, meaningful Bible study is not only possible for students, but important. He takes students seriously and expects them to take their faith seriously. Unpacking five truths about the Bible—that it is God speaking, is powerful, is understandable, is literary, and is one story—he demonstrates how the Bible should be studied and how teenagers themselves can lead that study.

Christianity is a lifelong endeavor. The act of becoming more like Christ is not simple. The Freedom in Christ discipleship program communicates to new and mature Christians alike the essential truths of the Christian faith. What are the next steps after we have taken that first step of giving ourselves wholly to God? Understanding these truths will help believers—from new converts to those whose walk may have become stagnant—to resolve personal and spiritual conflicts through genuine repentance and learn to experience freedom in Christ.

"Understanding Evangelicals: A Guide to Jesusland" encourages and challenges evangelicals to put their faith to work in the marketplace of ideas to bring about positive change in America.

This book is written for you, who desire to be a minister of undeniable impact and substance. Chew it, swallow it and your life will command evidence wherever you go. It is the secret of God at a man's disposal that distinguishes a man from others. If God must lead us to fulfill our ministry and destiny we must not be strangers to the secret place where His voice is decoded.

Are you ready to move from insecure to God secure? From regret riddled to better-because-of-it? From afraid to die to ready to fly? Today, find freedom in God's grace. We often talk about grace, but do we really understand it? Grace politely occupies a phrase in a hymn and fits nicely on a church sign. It never causes trouble or demands a response. When asked, "Do you believe in grace?" who could say no? Bestselling author and pastor Max Lucado helps us dive deeper into what it means to be changed by grace. God's grace has a drenching about it. A wildness about it. A white-water, riptide, turn-you-upside-downness about it. Grace comes after you. It rewires you. In this book, you will learn: Grace is everything Jesus You belong to Jesus Jesus lives in you You will increasingly grow more like Jesus There is nothing you can do to get grace—grace gets you Grace is the voice that calls us to change and then gives us the power to pull it off. Have you been shaped, emboldened, and softened by grace? Let's make certain grace gets you.

Ordained by God to impact families, marriages, singles, youth, the community and the nation through ministry, Apostle Charles A. Daniels is the Founder of New Beginnings International Ministries. He provides spiritual covering for several churches in the United States, Japan and Europe. His God given mission: "Equipping the Five-Fold, to equip the saints for the work of the ministry through training, prayer, praise, worship and the study of God's Word." A native of Hammond, Louisiana, Apostle Daniels completed his Doctorate in Theology from Grace Bible College and Seminary and earned a Master of Arts in Human Resource Management from Troy State University. He also has a Master of Arts in Theology from Grace Bible College and Seminary, a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Troy State University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies from Gary Whetstone School of Biblical Studies. While serving in the United States Marine Corps on Okinawa, Japan, Apostle Daniels pastored United Missionary Baptist Church, in 1997 through 2001. In addition to serving as senior pastor, Apostle Daniels was the director of Christian Education and established the School of Theology. After a successful tour of duty and growing ministry, Apostle Daniels planted the first church of New Beginnings International Ministries in Jacksonville, NC and served as the senior pastor, New Beginnings Christian Center (NBCC) from 2001 to 2002. During 2002, the Lord's Churches and Fellowship International Ministries ordained Apostle Daniels a Bishop under the auspices of Bishop Grant Williams. Apostle Daniels planted another church, New Beginnings Anointed Christian Center (NBACC) in Pensacola, FL in 2002. Through the unity of God's people NBACC purchased their first building in 2005. In 2007, under the direction of God, Apostle Daniels moved to Killeen, Texas and founded New Beginnings for All People (NBFAP) where he is currently the senior pastor. Apostle Daniels' apostolic calling and visionary leadership continued to bear fruit evidenced by the first ordination of bishops for New Beginnings International Ministries (NBIM) in June 2009. Despite having a busy schedule as presiding prelate for NBIM, Apostle Daniels continues to teach, both locally and at NBIM affiliate churches throughout the world. He is well known for his passionate instruction and spirit-led leadership. God is using Apostle Daniels to ignite a new generation of Christian ministry leaders and believers within the Body of Christ. Comments about the impact of his ministry - "You motivate me to draw closer to God," "The way that you teach helps me to focus on the Word," "If God wasn't in your life I wouldn't be here today," and "You are a true father" confirm the great work God is doing through Apostle Daniels. Apostle Daniels and his wife, Pastor Elaine L. Daniels, have been married 27 years and have two beautiful children, Andrea and LaJoy. "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: " Ephesians 4:11-12.

Hear his voice. Have his ear. Belong to his body. Three seemingly unremarkable principles shape and strengthen the Christian life: listening to God's voice, speaking to him in prayer, and joining together with his people as the church. Though often viewed as normal and routine, the everyday "habits of grace" we cultivate give us access to these God-designed channels through which his love and power flow—including the greatest joy of all: knowing and enjoying Jesus. A study guide for individual and group study is also available.

This book offers an exploration into the interconnections between career success and religiosity as it examines the role of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity in the work experiences of young, professional, black women who are becoming part of the post-apartheid South African middle class.

Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times, reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South. This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millenium. It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands. As such, it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio-political and economic developments, such as decolonization and civil war, as well broader processes, such as modernization and globalization.

The idea for this book came suddenly in a vivid snapshot while thinking about how Jesus talked about His love for children and displayed it in His actions. He would continue to tell people about His love for us as His children. So, I set out to make simple what many people have made complicated, the love of God through His son Jesus Christ as displayed through children.

remember. . .remember. . . memories. . .memories. . . be sure to remember. . . I remember. . . All of us in remembering our past leave a legacy for the future. How about you?

Has your family been blessed with happy memories? How do your choices today make heart memories never to be forgotten? Forrest "Moonie" Warren, father of the perfectly seven kids, saw his life choices as limited. . .all according to what is called the Blessing Standard and defined as God First, Others Second, Me Last. Moonie's Kids is a true story filled with family memories of a father whose learning station for values was hidden within ordinary family living. It will draw you into their hearts and show you the result of Moonie's steady and absolute guidance. As you follow the four brothers and three sisters in their walk down memory lane, allow their faith to reach into your life and ignite a desire for that Blessing Standard to touch your family and motivate you to consider what kind of legacy your family will inherit. As Moonie's oldest Kid interviews and shares from each sibling and family member, she uses scriptural parallels to hammer down family-held truths of God's absolutes. Don't miss these reminders of a Heavenly Father's abundant love and grace underlying His family's faith walk. Dorothy W. Schreiber, the oldest of Moonie's Kids, is well qualified to author this inspirational memoir. She is a graduate of Grace Bible School, has taken additional courses at Lancaster Bible College and has been a writer and teacher of ladies Bible classes/studies for 30 years. Now a widow, she was married to Fred for 51 years, has a daughter and a son, four grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. She lives in Coatesville, Pennsylvania.

We recognize the challenges churches face in engaging high school teens in deeper faith formation. Made up of 5 4-week studies, Canvas will captivate your students as they experience and explore the theological beliefs and foundational concepts that ground their faith. By working together to learn from history, tradition, and the Bible, students will uncover a portrait of God that will be an inspirational foundation to their own journey. This undated resource is designed to empower students to lead the lessons themselves, thus drawing students to not only learn about their faith, but put it into practice by serving and teaching others. Flexible to use as a continuation of confirmation, a small group resource, or student leadership resource. Canvas will inspire your students to paint the picture of their faith. Even when we don't deserve it, God embraces us. This is the story of grace - about how God responds to our faults and failures with patience and generosity, offering us a new life and a chance to grow forward. In Canvas: A Portrait of Grace, your students will experience what it means to be people who are covered with God's grace. Over four weeks, they will immerse themselves in the grace of God, explore what the Bible says, and then explore how the church has experienced and lived in God's grace through the centuries. Throughout all of it, they will be reminded of the awesome gift that we are given through our relationship with God.

The Bible teaches us that there is nothing more important than becoming like Jesus. The life of Jesus not only shows the full picture of who God is, but He also shows us what it means to be human. He is the quintessential man. In Him we see what a perfect relationship with God looks like, what our moral outlook should be, and what constitutes a good and worthy life. Through the ages, the church has confirmed that the Bible is both the standard and the guide that instructs, confronts and inspires us in the process of following Jesus. The way we see, understand, and experience God, ourselves, and the world around us should thus ultimately be based upon what the Bible teaches us. This Bible School course is therefore intended to help you to build your life around the Word of God.

There are very few comprehensive and logically sequenced discipleship manuals on the market today. Therefore, The Christian from Grace to Glory is an attempt to provide a systematic guide moving from exploring the claims of the Bible, to coming to faith in Christ, and finally heading down the path to maturity in Christ. This manual guides the reader through teaching, self study, and clear logical sequencing so that the Bible can go from being an unfamiliar mysterious book to a close friend and a guide for life. This manual is complete with maps, tables, pertinent articles, self guided study, a prophecy chart centered on Jesus Christ, timelines, suggested memory verses, and a guide to how to study the Bible. Also, there are sections on Old and New Testament surveys, creation evidence, sin, redemption, theology, finances, the Christian and his church, the end times, Bible translations, denominations and cults, and word studies. The serious believer will find this work informative, stimulating, empowering, and practical. The Christian who completes this book will find it of immense benefit in his or her Christian walk.

This work is an invitation and guide for young people to bring the realm of Heaven to earth. As children discover their identity through the revelation of the Father's love, they are released to fulfill their Royal Mission: to demonstrate the Kingdom of God by living a life of miracles. Each chapter explains and identifies the inheritance that God's sons and daughters possess, such as the Father's love, the anointing and indwelling of the Holy Spirit, faith, prayer, and the keys of power and authority. This book is not only a companion for the "journey", but also provides a meeting place for children to encounter God's presence that will transform their hearts and lives.
