Induced After Death Communication (IADC) is a therapy for grief and trauma that has helped thousands of people come to terms with their loss by allowing them the experience of private communication with their departed loved ones. This is the definitive book on the subject. Botkin, a clinical psychologist, created the therapy while counseling Vietnam veterans in his work at a Chicago area VA hospital. Botkin recounts his initial—accidental—discovery of IADC during therapy sessions with Sam, a Vietnam vet haunted by the memory of a Vietnamese girl he couldn't save. During the session, quite unexpectedly, Sam saw a vision of the girl's spirit, who told him everything was okay; she was at peace now. This single moment surpassed months—years—of therapy, and allowed Sam to reconnect with his family. Since that 1995 discovery, Botkin has used IADC to successfully treat countless patients—the book includes dozens of case examples—and has taught the procedure to therapists around the country.

Greetings From Heaven: Wish You Were Here is a novel telling the wonderful story of life after death for Christians. It begins with a college student and promising author named David who dies tragically in a car accident just two days before Christmas. Immediately he meets two strangers, who introduce themselves as Jonathan and Daniel, and explain that they are his guardian angels who have been watching over David from the moment he was born. They lift him skyward and fly him towards the direction of Heaven. David learns from them the location of Heaven as well as the ancient clues from the Bible which confirm this and confirm all the other wonderful things he is about to see. The spectacular view of Heaven as the angels approach it with David is awe-inspiring. Shortly David joins a group of newly arrived believers as they are each individually "welcomed home" by both Jesus and God the Father. David and his group enter into the pearly gates, walk upon the glowing streets of gold, eat from the Tree of Life and drink from the River of Life. They quickly learn the true meaning of the Bible verse "they shall mount up with wings like eagles" and shortly arrive at each of their individual mansions where they re-unite with their dearly departed Christian loved ones. Later on they worship Christ together with hundreds of millions of Christians in the center of Heaven. David and the other newly arrived believers are then special guests of honor at the Wedding Feast where they get to personally spend time with Christ and eat with Him. Finally, David celebrates Christmas in Heaven by both attending and actually participating in a perfect recreation of the birth of Christ played by all of the original participants, including Mary, Joseph, the original angels and shepherds, and where Jesus himself plays the Christ child. Meanwhile, it is Christmas on earth and David's grieving family wishes they could hear from him just one more time and find some answers about what happened to him. They open up David's Christmas present to them and realize that it is the manuscript from David's first and only book he will ever write. The title, Greetings From Heaven: Wish You Were Here, brings them to tears. But they are amazed when they begin reading and recognize that only weeks earlier, David had prophetically written about the car accident and his trip to heaven. Then they realize that they have truly heard from David one last time and that David is indeed safe and happy in his eternal home in Heaven with Jesus.

Hearts from Heaven is a true story of a love that transcends life on earth. Leatrice Marson met her husband Robert in 1952 while working at a large pharmaceutical company; they married in 1953 and had three children. Over the next five decades, their life together was filled with love, adventure, and faith. Robert was asked to join the company's international division in 1954, for which he traveled to thirty-three countries. In 1971, the company moved him and his family to Johannesburg, South Africa, to work on a special project. The family returned to New Jersey in 1975. As their children grew and grandchildren came into their lives, Leatrice and Robert continued to live a full and happy life. A romantic husband, Robert often left a rose on the kitchen table or a small note with a heart on it for Leatrice when he left for work. Although cancer eventually took Robert's life in 2001, he has continued to be a presence in her life. Beginning about a month after his death, Robert's form appeared to her in church, and then other mysterious signs of his presence began happening. As evidenced in this beautiful, heartwarming book, Hearts from Heaven, Leatrice has received many hearts from heaven from her beloved Robert. They often show up in the most unexpected ways, but always at just the right time.

Throughout Scripture, God makes liberal use of garments and garment imagery to reveal things about Himself: glimpses into His nature, His purposes, His plans. Fabrics and threads, ancient weaving processes, colors and jewels, even military belts and helmets—each detail yields meaning, has significance. These incredible clothing elements help teach us who God is. But have you ever considered that in all of Scripture, God personally has designed only three outfits: 1. the garments of skins in Genesis 3; 2. the Priestly Robes in Exodus 28; 3. the Armor of God in Ephesians 6. These three vastly different outfits—these Threads from Heaven—yield amazing visual images not only of God Himself but of our relationship to Him. And they lead us to one profound truth—when everything else is said and done—He alone can clothe us.

It's obvious from the bookshelves and the big screen that heaven is on everyone's mind. All of us long to know what life after death will be like.

Bestselling author John Burke is no exception. For decades, he has been studying accounts of people who have had near-death experiences (NDEs).

While not every detail of individual NDEs correlate with Scripture, Burke shows how the common experiences shared by thousands of survivors clearly point to the God of the Bible and the exhilarating picture of heaven he promises. Imagine Heaven is an inspirational journey through the Bible's picture of heaven, colored in with the real-life stories of heaven's wonders. Burke compares gripping stories of NDEs to what Scripture says about our biggest questions of heaven: Will I be myself? Will I see friends and loved ones? What will it look like? What is God like? What will we do forever? What about children and pets? This book will propel readers into an experience that will forever change their view of the life to come and the way they live life today. It also tackles the tough questions of heavenly reward and hellish NDEs. Anyone interested in NDEs or longing to imagine heaven more clearly will enjoy this fascinating and hope-filled book.

A tragic suicide may have ended the earthly life of Harriet Deison, but it didn't end the love story she shared with her husband, Pete. Their connection continued through Pete's vivid dreams of Harriet sent from her new home in heaven. Pete and Harriet Deison were enjoying a full life of being parents, grandparents, and partners in ministry when deep depression spiraled Harriet into a darkness that caused her to take her own life. Suddenly thrust into unimaginable grief, Pete, a Presbyterian minister, turns to his roots as a student and educator in an attempt to make sense of it all. Visits from Heaven is the love story of a man and his wife of forty-three years, which quietly becomes the story of God's love for his children. The narrative of strange coincidences, amazing answers to prayer, and dozens of dreams by Pete and others affirms that there is a continued existence of a loved one that can be experienced here on earth. Is heaven a place where real life continues, or is it all clouds, pearly gates, and long church services? Visits from Heaven answers those questions, giving readers a clearer picture of what life is like for a believer after he or she leaves earth. It's also a wake-up call for those who secretly think heaven is a dry and boring place. Deeply grounded in the Scriptures and in the classic works of writers such as C.S. Lewis, Sheldon Vanauken, John Claypool, Randy Alcorn, and N.T. Wright, Deison shares biblical truths about the reality of our continued existence and the nature of our heavenly home. Visits from Heaven gently leads grieving people on an effective and insightful journey through the grief and recovery process. The First Phone Call from Heaven tells the story of a small town on Lake Michigan that gets worldwide attention when its citizens start receiving phone calls from the afterlife. Is it the greatest miracle ever or a massive hoax? Sully Harding, a grief-stricken single father, is determined to find out. An allegory about the power of belief—and a page-turner that will touch your soul—Albom's masterful storytelling has never been so moving and unexpected. Readers of The Five People You Meet in Heaven will recognize the warmth and emotion so redolent of Albom's writing, and those who haven't yet enjoyed the power of his storytelling, will thrill at the discovery of one of the best-loved writers of our time. "What is heaven really like? A recently departed soul speaks from heaven about his experiences on the other side. The unseen author of this book tells us of life's true purpose and urges us to make the most of our sojourn on earth. He warns us that we are fast approaching a turning point, which could lead to an age of enlightenment and peace or to a future none of us wants to see. If we act now, we can still turn things around...but we need help from heaven. "I have witnessed so many beautiful and amazing events on this side. However, I believe that my greatest opportunity is to urge you to see what you have, where the planet is headed without intervention and how you can make a difference.... I feel an urgency to help people recognize the signs of the times." This story of a soul's life after death will change the way you look at life—and death."

What if heaven is more real, physical, exciting, and compelling than anything we have ever heard? And what difference would it make? Myk Habets takes readers on a journey of discovery into what God has in store for those who love him. Forget playing harps on fluffy clouds. The reality of what God has in store for us will change the way you live, work, and play. Habets answers a series of questions about heaven that are asked by children and addresses things we all want to know but are often too afraid to ask. Written in easy-to-read language and incorporating insights from some of the best Christian novelists, Habets explains the meaning of a "Christian imagination" and how it can be put to work in creating a vision of the future that results in a life characterized by faith, hope, and assurance. This book appeals to all who want to know what the Bible says about life after death, and finds a way to make it understandable to others. It may even make you laugh out loud along the way.

From the author of the acclaimed Dinner with Persephone comes a radically original novel about four women who invite us to imagine the divine anew: what if "a woman's point of view" were also God's? Patricia Storace's Eve begins by telling us her version of what happened in Eden, and by revealing that our familiar constellations conceal other heavens we have never allowed ourselves to see. Each of the four subsequent chapters is the story of one of these new zodiacs, featuring images central to women: a knife, a cauldron, a garden, a pair of embracing lovers. The four women whose stories they tell are Job's daughter, the Queen of Sheba, a polytheistic cook, and a transformed Sarah, wife of Abraham. Storace brilliantly reimagines the worlds of these women, freeing them from the old tales in which they were trapped and putting them in the foreground of their stories and of the Old Testament itself.

Who could have known an afternoon walk around the block would eventually have such a profound impact on people around this world? Acts 2:17 says, "In the last days, God says, I will pour my spirit out on all people. Your daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams." It is all true! We are being shown His constant heart to reach His people through this remarkable photography. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the greatness of the power would be from God and not from us. —2 Corinthians 4:7 (Aramaic Bible in plain English) I have been an amateur photographer most of my life; the beauty in the world captures me. I had always been told my photographs were wonderful, and I knew I had a talent. Several years ago, my photographs began to change; suddenly they no longer represented my skill, they began to reflect the Creator behind the beauty. How blessed we are that God only needs an open heart! He reached out and touched me. He drew me into a remarkable journey to touch others for Him. I have spent the past several years on this very important and unique project. How could I have known that a walk around the block with my camera would find its way to so many people around the world—that a snapshot from my lens would speak to hearts for God? How could I know how this path would change me? I am a proud native of Williamstown, West Virginia, a small town along the Ohio River.
