In this new, original Stinky Face story, Mama tells her little one that she's thankful for him. Stinky Face, of course, has a question. With greasy, taco-covered hands and face, he asks, Mama, are you thankful for me even right now? Being thankful is a perennial theme for this young age group. Learning to appreciate yourself, the people around you, and people's unique gifts and individuality is a lesson that is more crucial now than ever, and that is what is at the heart of this touching story. This new story is the closest in feel and tone to the original, and with over one and a half million copies sold of I Love You, Stinky Face, we're confident this one will truly resonate with this audience.

Pembral Forgets is a story about fall leaves, good food and an absent-minded boy who forgets something very important but is loved anyway. Author, Steve Tubbs is a lawyer by trade, whose annual holiday letters tickle the ribs of those on his list. His tale of Pembral is in part an ode to his dearly patient mother, whose son was known to his school teachers as a 'day dreamer'. Pembral Forgets invokes the hallmarks of fall with colorful leaves and frost on the ground, and, of course, the wonderful aroma of baking in the kitchen. It is Steve's first effort as an author. Sue Clancy, a professional artist and illustrator, was delighted and honored to be asked to illustrate Pembral Forgets. She created the artwork for each page, by hand, with ink and gouache on handmade paper to make this artist book inspired by Steve Tubbs's story.
