In recent decades, considerable European investment has been devoted to the training of language assistants, full-time teaching staff and mentors, while the new figure of the professional "language teacher trainer" (LTT) has emerged. It is becoming increasingly important that future LTTs are not simply more expert teachers, or scholars competent in the various relevant disciplines, but professionals who are aware of their role, who know the development of teacher training in Europe and beyond, and who are able to compare various experiences in different training contexts. This volume is aimed at LTTs who wish to become aware of the main issues, tools and research now available for their daily practice and professional role, and for lecturers who teach prospective language teachers. Language teachers with long experience might also find useful information on how they can develop into LTTs. The book also offers an overview of recent European projects that could be relevant to principals of language departments who are involved in the assessment and performance management of their staff. Finally, the volume contains research suggestions for academic and PhD students who are investigating current issues in language teaching methodology, teacher training, lifelong learning and professional development. Contributors include: Mercè Bernaus, Nick Charge, Jim Cummins, Pierangela Diadori, Michael Kelly, Hanna Komorowska, Laura Muresan, Joe Navarro, Brian North, Mario Pace, Fiorella Perotto and Richard Rossner.

This first volume of the ISATT Conference Series looks for a common path to a better vision on the future of education. It focuses on themes of educational policies, curriculum reforms, and teaching in a multicultural world.

"Il secondo volume è indirizzato a studenti di livello A2, i cosiddetti "falsi principianti", vale a dire apprendenti che hanno avuto contatti occasionali con la lingua italiana e ne conoscono i suoni distintivi e alcuni vocaboli di base. L'obiettivo di questa seconda tappa è far giungere lo studente a un grado di competenza linguistica che gli consenta di comprendere frasi ed espressioni di uso frequente relative ad ambiti fondamentali, di comunicare in attività non complesse che implicino scambi di informazioni elementari."--Editore.

"Il quarto volume è indirizzato a studenti di livello B2, i cosiddetti "utenti indipendenti", già in possesso di una relativa autonomia linguistica. L'obiettivo di questa quarta tappa è far sì che lo studente raggiunga uno stadio più elevato di autonomia linguistica e che alla fine del corso sia in grado di comprendere le idee fondamentali di testi complessi, di interagire con i parlanti nativi con una certa scioltezza e spontaneità, di produrre testi chiari e articolati su un'ampia gamma di temi, di esprimere una propria opinione su un problema indicando gli aspetti positivo e negativo delle diverse possibili soluzioni."--Editore.

'Qui Italia' è un corso indirizzato a giovani e adulti con nessuna o soltanto una minima conoscenza della lingua italiana, che acquisiranno in modo progressivo ed equilibrato la competenza linguistica necessaria per esprimersi correttamente nelle situazioni comuni di vita quotidiana.

This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license "Francesca Billiani and Laura Pennacchietti draw brilliantly and with precision the evolution of the new architecture and of the national novel (with insights on translations of international novels), whose profiles had been shaped from different angles, especially in the 1930s. These two fields, apparently so distant one from the other, had never been analysed in parallel. This book does this and uncovers several points of contact between the two, spanning propaganda and theoretical turning points." —Chiara Costa and Cornelia Mattiacci, Fondazione Prada, Italy "This book shows convincingly how the arte di Stato during Fascism was created with the morality of a new novel as well as architecture. It is surprising to read how one of the representatives of State art, Giuseppe Bottai, is also one of the finest critics of realist novels and rationalist architecture. More than parallel endeavours, the system of the arts during the Fascist regime should be viewed as a series of intersections of cultural, political and aesthetic discourses." —Monica Jansen, Utrecht University, The Netherlands Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime discusses the relationship between the novel and architecture during the Fascist period in Italy (1922-1943). By looking at two profoundly diverse aesthetic phenomena within the context of the creation of a Fascist State art, Billiani and Pennacchietti argue that an effort of construction, or reconstruction, was the main driving force behind both projects: the advocated "revolution" of the novel form (realism) and that of architecture (rationalism). The book is divided into seven chapters, which in turn analyze the interconnections between the novel and architecture in theory and in practice. The first six chapters cover debates on State art, on the novel and on architecture, as well as their historical development and their unfolding in key journals of the period. The last chapter offers a detailed analysis of some important novels and buildings, which have in practice realized some of the key principles articulated in the theoretical disputes. Francesca Billiani is Senior Lecturer in Italian Studies and Director of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Research in the Arts and Languages at the University of Manchester, UK. Laura Pennacchietti is Research Associate in Italian Studies at the University of Manchester, UK.

For the person who has a reasonable knowledge of Italian, this book is aimed at learning more about Italian life and language, from authentic sources. A cassette, which accompanies this book, is available. This volume addresses the teaching and learning of vocabulary in Italian L2 from different points of view, defining an updated and heterogeneous framework. The articles focus on wide-ranging topics: advances in acquisitional linguistics research, studies on interlanguage, results of psycholinguistic research, the role of teaching technologies, the use of multimedia lexicographic tools, new attention to languages for specific purposes, analysis of interactions on social networks. Each of these topics is treated specifically referring to the lexical dimension and to the possible applicative effects on the teaching of Italian L2. Il volume affronta da diversi punti di vista il tema della didattica del lessico in italiano L2, definendone un quadro aggiornato ed eterogeneo. I contributi sono incentrati su argomenti di ampio respiro: l'avanzamento delle ricerche di linguistica acquisizionale, gli studi sull'interlingua, i risultati della ricerca psicolinguistica, il ruolo delle tecnologie educative, l'uso di strumenti lessicografici multimediali, la nuova attenzione alle lingue specialistiche, l'analisi dei processi comunicativi sui social. Ciascuno di questi temi è trattato con specifico riferimento alla dimensione lessicale e alle possibili ricadute applicative per la didattica dell'Italiano L2.

When ten-year-old Enaiatollah Akbari's small village in Afghanistan falls prey to Taliban rule in early 2000, his mother shepherds the boy across the border into Pakistan but has to leave him there all alone to fend for himself. Thus begins Enaiat's remarkable and often punishing five-year ordeal, which takes him through Iran, Turkey, and Greece before he seeks political asylum in Italy at the age of fifteen. Along the way, Enaiat endures the crippling physical and emotional agony of dangerous border crossings, trekking across bitterly cold mountain pathways for days on end or being stuffed into the false bottom of a truck. But not everyone is as resourceful, resilient, or lucky as Enaiat, and there are many heart-wrenching casualties along the way. Based on Enaiat's close collaboration with Italian novelist Fabio Geda and expertly rendered in English by an award-winning translator, this novel reconstructs the young boy's memories, perfectly preserving the childlike perspective and rhythms of an intimate oral history. Told with humor and humanity, In the Sea There Are Crocodiles brilliantly captures Enaiat's moving and engaging voice and lends urgency to an epic story of hope and survival.

Este libro es el resultado del curso 2021/FEDU01 Formación docente específica para profesores del Máster en Profesor de Educación Secundaria, Bachillerato, Formación Profesional y Enseñanza de Idiomas - MUPES - curso 2020-21, desarrollado dentro del Plan de Formación Docente del Profesorado de la Universidad de Salamanca, a iniciativa del Vicerrectorado de Docencia e Innovación Educativa. Este curso está avalado por la Facultad de Educación y se ha organizado dentro del Programa de Formación en Centros, que da respuesta a las necesidades concretas de sus titulaciones. Se ha celebrado en un formato de Taller Virtual largo desde el día 1 hasta el día 15 de julio de 2021, con sesiones síncronas los días 1 y 2 de julio de 2021; y sesiones asíncronas a través de foros de discusión. El objetivo del curso, y de este libro Innovación en la Formación de los Futuros Educadores de Educación Secundaria para el Desarrollo sostenible y ciudadanía mundial, es proporcionar un espacio y tiempo de reflexión sobre conocimientos, habilidades y motivación para entender, abordar e implementar soluciones de ODS en las aulas de la Educación Secundaria, Bachillerato, Formación Profesional y Enseñanzas de Idiomas. Cada uno de los capítulos de este libro corresponde a las exposiciones del curso que han permitido la puesta en común de experiencias innovadoras entre el profesorado que imparte docencia en el MUPES respecto a la Educación para el Desarrollo sostenible y la ciudadanía mundial. Esta es la línea estratégica que nos mueve para la publicación de este libro: recoger buenas prácticas sobre experiencias innovadoras y de investigación de profesores en las aulas del Máster en Profesor de Educación Secundaria Obligatoria y Bachillerato, Formación Profesional y Enseñanzas de Idiomas - MUPES, en la Universidad de Salamanca.
