

Le Carte Magiche Della Zingara Indovina Con 25 Carte

I POTERI LATENTI NELL'UOMO: L'autore ha dedicato più di quaranta anni all'indagine e allo studio dei fenomeni paranormali. In questo libro egli descrive i sorprendenti risultati di queste sue ricerche, che rivestono grande interesse per chiunque ritenga che il mondo in cui viviamo sia più vasto della realtà che i nostri cinque sensi ci permettono di percepire. Il dott. Baker sostiene che in ogni essere umano sono presenti in forma latente poteri che possono svilupparsi e manifestarsi se l'individuo dedica la sua vita allo sviluppo spirituale. Poteri quali la telepatia, la psicocinesi, la chiaroveggenza si sviluppano inevitabilmente come prodotti collaterali della propria crescita interiore. Vengono presentate prove sia di carattere scientifico che di carattere esoterico dell'esistenza di queste forze misteriose, ma naturali; viene anche mostrato come esse già operano nella nostra società moderna. Particolarmente interessanti sono i capitoli dedicati ai bambini superdotati ed ai loro problemi. I bambini superdotati rappresentano la maggior ricchezza posseduta dall'umanità, e troppa poca attenzione viene generalmente dedicata ai delicati problemi del loro sviluppo. Gli scritti presenti in questo volume sono un contributo a colmare questa grave lacuna.

The Flowers of Evil (Les Fleurs du Mal) may speak of the carnal, depraved, and decaying in human life and the city, but Charles Baudelaire's poetry so infuses even the most grotesque with beauty and a kind of innocence that the reader is moved beyond the rubric of the sacred and profane, into sublimity. This new edition, which features the English translation by F.P. Sturm and W.J. Robertson, also includes artwork by Lester Banzuelo.

Appearing here in its first English translation, Into the War contains three stories drawing on Italo Calvino's memories of the Second World War in Italy.

Questa raccolta di poesie e di racconti popolari anonimi in dialetto molisano tracciano il percorso di due storie che, pur diversificate, si compenetrano e si completano a vicenda: la storia individuale dell'autore e la storia collettiva della società di un paese del Sud. Le immagini di un mondo apparentemente immobile e arcaico si alternano alle vicende di una realtà storica complessa e tormentata, nel cui magma vecchio e nuovo si scontrano e si fondono. This collection of poems and anonymous folktales in the Molisan dialect traces the unfolding of two stories which, although distinct, interweave and complete each other: the author's individual story and the story of a town in the South of Italy. The images of an apparently immobile and archaic world alternate with the events of a complex and tormented historical reality, in whose magma the new and the old clash and fuse."

Nazi Wives is a fascinating look at the personal lives, psychological profiles, and marriages of the wives of officers in Hitler's inner circle. Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, Heydrich, Hess, Bormann—names synonymous with power and influence in the Third Reich. Perhaps less familiar are Carin, Emmy, Magda, Margaret, Lina, Ilse and Gerda... These are the women behind the infamous men—complex individuals with distinctive personalities who were captivated by Hitler and whose everyday lives were governed by Nazi ideology. Throughout the rise and fall of Nazism these women loved and lost, raised families and quarreled with their husbands and each other, all the while jostling for position with the Fuhrer himself. Until now, they have been treated as minor characters, their significance ignored, as if they were unaware of their husbands' murderous acts, despite the evidence that was all around them: the stolen art on their walls, the slave labor in their homes, and the produce grown in concentration camps on their tables. James Wyllie's Nazi Wives explores these women in detail for the first time, skillfully interweaving their stories through years of struggle, power, decline and destruction into the post-war twilight of denial and delusion.

Hitherto we have spoken only of the mystic path; and we have kept particularly to the practical exoteric side of it. Such difficulties as we have mentioned have been purely natural obstacles. For example, the great question of the surrender of the self, which bulks so largely in most mystical treatises, has not been referred to at all. We have said only what a man must do; we have not considered at all what that doing may involve. The rebellion of the will against the terrible discipline of meditation has not been discussed; one may now devote a few words to it.
