

Mille Splendidi Soli

The revival of translation as a means of learning and teaching a foreign language and as a skill in its own right is occurring at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels in universities. In this book, Sara Laviosa proposes a translation-based pedagogy that is grounded in theory and has been applied in real educational contexts. This volume draws on the convergence between the view of language and translation embraced by ecologically-oriented educationalists and the theoretical underpinnings of the holistic approach to translating culture. It puts forward a holistic pedagogy that harmonizes the teaching of language and translation in the same learning environment. The author examines the changing nature of the role of pedagogic translation starting with the Grammar Translation Method and concluding with the more recent ecological approaches to Foreign Language Education. Translation and Language Education analyses current research into the revival of translation in language teaching and is vital reading for translators, language teachers and postgraduate students working in the areas of Translation Studies and Applied Linguistics.

An all-new collection of summer-themed mysteries from the master of the genre, just in time for the holiday season.

This is the story of a young priest in the tiny French village of St. Pierre-des-Monts who receives a telephone call from God warning that he is about to destroy mankind with a second great flood. Only Father Benoir and his misfit flock will be saved, but they must hurry, said God, and build an ark like Noah's. AFTER ME, THE DELUGE is an outrageous, irreverent comedy which inspired one of Italy's longest running stage musicals which has been seen by over fifteen million people since its debut in 1974.

Mariam e Laila hanno età diverse, vite e storie diverse. Una non conosce che il dolore e la privazione. L'altra è cresciuta credendo che per chiunque ci possa essere un futuro, anche in un paese come l'Afghanistan. Sarà la guerra, con il suo tragico scenario di morte, a unirle. Due donne, due destini, una sola indimenticabile storia.

Moments. Our lives are a collection of moments. Some utterly painful and full of yesterday's hurts. Some beautifully hopeful and full of tomorrow's promises. I've had many moments in my lifetime, moments that changed me, challenged me. Moments that scared me and engulfed me. However, the biggest ones—the most heartbreaking and breathtaking ones—all included him. I was ten years old when I lost my voice. A piece of me was stolen away, and the only person who could truly hear my silence was Brooks Griffin. He was the light during my dark days, the promise of tomorrow, until tragedy found him. Tragedy that eventually drowned him in a sea of memories. This is the story of a boy and girl who loved each other, but didn't love themselves. A story of life and death. Of love and broken promises. Of moments. (Book Three in the Elements Series. Complete Standalone.)

In the bitter winter of 1946, Rachael Morgan arrives with her only remaining son Edmund in the ruins of Hamburg. Here she is reunited with her husband Lewis, a British colonel charged with rebuilding the shattered city. But as they set off for their new home, Rachael is stunned to discover that Lewis has made an extraordinary decision— they will be sharing the grand house with its previous owners, a German widower and his troubled daughter. In this charged atmosphere, enmity and grief give way to passion and betrayal. 1243.56

A globe-trotting journalist describes the people he met and the events he witnessed over the years. He interviewed such newsmakers as Mother Teresa, bullfighter El Cordobes and Caryl Chessman on Death Row, and among the events he covered was the hijacking of a cruise ship. By the author of Is Paris Burning?

Please note that this will work best on a color device and will appear in a horizontal format The #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Kite Runner, A Thousand Splendid Suns, and And the Mountains Echoed responds to the heartbreak of the current refugee crisis with this deeply moving, beautifully illustrated short work of fiction for people of all ages, all over the world.

"Intensely moving. . . Powerfully evocative of the plight in which displaced populations find themselves."— Kirkus, STARRED Review "Hosseini's story, aimed at readers of all ages, does not dwell on nightmarish fates; instead, its emotional power flows from the love of a father for his son."— Publishers Weekly, STARRED BOX Review A short, powerful, illustrated book written by beloved novelist Khaled Hosseini in response to the current refugee crisis, Sea Prayer is composed in the form of a letter, from a father to his son, on the eve of their journey. Watching over his sleeping son, the father reflects on the dangerous sea-crossing that lies before them. It is also a vivid portrait of their life in Homs, Syria, before the war, and of that city's swift transformation from a home into a deadly war zone. Impelled to write this story by the haunting image of young Alan Kurdi, the three-year-old Syrian boy whose body washed upon the beach in Turkey in September 2015, Hosseini hopes to pay tribute to the millions of families, like Kurdi's, who have been splintered and forced from home by war and persecution, and he will donate author proceeds from this book to the UNHCR (the UN Refugee Agency) and The Khaled Hosseini Foundation to help fund lifesaving relief efforts to help refugees around the globe. Khaled Hosseini is one of the most widely read writers in the world, with more than fifty-five million copies of his novels sold worldwide in more than seventy countries. Hosseini is also a Goodwill Envoy to the UNHCR, and the founder of The Khaled Hosseini Foundation, a nonprofit that provides humanitarian assistance to the people of Afghanistan.

Un Lungo Viaggio Tra i sentieri dell'Anima Un Viaggio Mai Terminato...

Maddalena si mette in viaggio verso il Nord con il figlio di quattro anni. Sta fuggendo dal suo passato, contrassegnato dal desiderio di libertà in età giovanile, da ottimi risultati nello studio e nel lavoro, e pessime esperienze con gli uomini. Con il suo carico di timori, rimpianti, sfocate ipotesi di futuro, approda in Scozia: lì incontra un gentiluomo che l'aiuta e che si trova in una condizione, seppur totalmente diversa, paragonabile alla sua. Tutto sembra condurre a un finale scontato, ma ancora una volta Maddalena capisce che deve andarsene. L'ultima fuga la conduce in un villaggio di pescatori dove conosce Maeve, che le insegna un nuovo modo di vivere e tra detti popolari e leggende celtiche l'accompagna verso il suo futuro. Nato a Trento il 1° novembre 1950, dopo gli studi Guido Smadelli ha intrapreso la via della musica, frequentando contemporaneamente il conservatorio, girando tutta Italia con la propria band per un quinquennio. Un incidente ha causato la chiusura del capitolo; qualche anno da commerciante, nel campo degli strumenti musicali, per poi cedere l'attività ai soci e passare nel mondo dell'informazione, scelta legata anche alla decisione di trasferirsi in Val di Non (matrimonio con Ivana, due figlie, Chiara e Irene, una casa, decisione di diventare stanziale). In veste di redattore di un giornale quotidiano trascorre gli ultimi trent'anni lavorativi. Continua tuttora, da pensionato, la collaborazione da "esterno" con la stessa testata. Coltiva molti interessi: musica, pittura (ad olio: disegna angoli caratteristici dei luoghi visitati), viaggi con predilezione per il Nord, lettura, scrittura. Cui si aggiunge, da pensionato, l'orticoltura. Ha iniziato a scrivere racconti a vent'anni; molti lavori nel cassetto, mai dati alle stampe. Devo andarmene è stato scritto a cavallo tra 2018 e 2019, da un'idea formatasi mentre stava recandosi a una conferenza stampa. Tornato a casa, ha iniziato la prima stesura, lavorandoci per un mese, per poi farlo leggere alle sue collaboratrici (moglie e figlie) e rivederne il testo apportando leggere modifiche e correzioni. Nelle officine di Mondadori e di Rizzoli, di Einaudi e di Bompiani, di Garzanti e di Feltrinelli, fino ai microlaboratori di e/o e di minimum fax. Quarant'anni di lavoro editoriale raccontati dalle voci dei protagonisti. Nel retrobottega dell'editoria troviamo i maggiori scrittori italiani e stranieri, più spesso al ristorante o in trattoria che in redazione, con le loro debolezze e le passioni, gli umori e i malumori. Leggere questa memoria orale della letteratura contemporanea è come trovarsi faccia a faccia con Oriana Fallaci che in cucina prepara un fritto di pesce, con Allen Ginsberg che si lancia su un piatto fumante di ravioli, con Sciascia che mette mano al portafogli prima di chiunque, con Simenon che aborre gli oggetti di colore verde, con Ellroy che in piena notte, a Milano, urla: «Sono il cane pazzo della letteratura!», con Kerouac sbronzo tra le braccia di mamma-Nanda (Pivano), con Terzani che saluta un amico per l'ultima volta. E poi: Moravia, Morante, Bufalino, Gadda, Calvino, Soldati, Kundera, Rushdie, Harris, Grisham, Eco, Biagi, Manganelli, Bunker, Tamaro, Allende, Tabucchi, Vázquez Montalbán, Doris Lessing, Arbasino, Tondelli, Ammaniti e tanti altri. Tutti scrittori che non avete mai visto così da vicino.

Milioni di persone sono rimaste folgorate dalla bellezza sensuale dell'Iran, dai suoi posti, dalla sua gente. "Trans-Iran" è un viaggio oltre le barriere linguistiche, oltre i pregiudizi, oltre i luoghi comuni. Per imparare a conoscere e ad amare un Paese, l'Iran, che non è come ci viene raccontato dai giornali e dalla politica ma molto di più, molto meglio, decisamente molto altro... Dalla letteratura al cinema, dalla poesia alle donne, questo libro vi racconta e spiega che cosa è l'Iran e perché non ne possiamo fare a meno. "L'Iran non è privo di contraddizioni stridenti e grandi problemi. Ma per chi cerca anche l'altro Iran, consiglio la lettura di questo libro". (Anna Vanzan, New York University) "Un Paese senza cultura è un Paese senza identità. E senza un'identità sociale non ci sarà mai un'identità politica. Consiglio vivamente la lettura di questo libro non solo agli amici italiani, ma soprattutto agli amici iraniani che da anni sono lontani da questo meraviglioso e sempre sorprendente Paese". (Babak Karimi, cineasta iraniano, attore in "Una separazione", film Premio Oscar come miglior pellicola straniera del 2012)

A man becomes a hero... As a young boy in Ithaca, Odysseus listens in wonder to his grandfather Autolykos, a man feared by many across the land as a ruthless fighter. He learns of his heritage and a lifelong passion is sparked: to become an adventurer and warrior. In Mycenae, he meets King Eurystheus and learns the terrible story of Hercules - the man with god-like strength who slaughtered his family and punished by the King to undertake impossible tasks to earn absolution. But is Eurystheus the man he says he is? When a child comes to Odysseus in the middle of the night, with another, very disturbing, version of what happened that fateful night, Odysseus embarks on the first of his extraordinary quests... So begins the epic story of Odysseus, the first of two volumes: an adventure of love, war, courage and heroism, weaving from a small rocky island in Greece, to the mighty fall of Troy.

Gemma returns with her teenage son to war-scarred Sarajevo to teach him about the city of his birth and the father he never knew, a journey that causes her to experience vivid memories. Il progetto di ricerca nasce con l'obiettivo di realizzare un sondaggio annuale sugli studenti che partecipano ai saloni Campus Orienta. Si tratta di un sondaggio che considera una popolazione particolare: studenti di ultimo o penultimo anno delle scuole secondarie superiori impegnati in un'attività abbastanza informale e, dunque, nelle condizioni migliori per esprimersi liberamente. Il lavoro non ha pretesa di realizzare un campione rappresentativo dei giovani italiani poiché i ragazzi che si fermano nello stand allestito presso i saloni Campus Orienta e si rendono disponibili a partecipare alla ricerca non possono essere considerati rappresentativi dell'intera popolazione dei ragazzi che partecipano al Salone. Tuttavia l'alto numero di soggetti intervistati consente una lettura interessante di alcuni aspetti degli atteggiamenti e dei valori propri dei ragazzi che escono dalle scuole secondarie superiori e si apprestano a inserirsi nella società come studenti universitari o come lavoratori.

1970s Afghanistan: Twelve-year-old Amir is desperate to win the local kite-fighting tournament and his loyal friend Hassan promises to help him. But neither of the boys can foresee what will happen to Hassan that afternoon, an event that is to shatter their lives... The multimillion-copy New York Times bestselling author B.A. Paris returns to her heartland of gripping psychological suspense in The Therapist—a powerful tale of a house that holds a shocking secret. When Alice and Leo move into a newly renovated house in The Circle, a gated community of exclusive houses, it is everything they've dreamed of. But appearances can be deceptive... As Alice is getting to know her neighbours, she discovers a devastating secret about her new home, and begins to feel a strong connection with Nina, the therapist who lived there before. Alice becomes obsessed with trying to piece together what happened two years before. But no one wants to talk about it. Her neighbors are keeping secrets and things are not as perfect as they seem...

Vivi, ricorda, sorridi: Luna è un'adolescente timida, silenziosa e a volte scontrosa, che si sente spesso a disagio ma sincera e profonda e con valori autentici. L'amicizia è un punto cardine nella sua esistenza ma non le riesce così facile accostarsi ed aprirsi alle persone. La scrittura diventa, così, il suo porto sicuro, il rifugio cui approdare per evadere dalla realtà. Solo l'incontro quotidiano con un ragazzo sulla corriera che li porta ogni mattina a scuola, diventerà l'occasione per sbloccare l'anima di Luna e farla affiorare. Sarà proprio imparando ad amare Brian che imparerà ad amare se stessa e ad aprirsi al mondo.

In questo lavoro di tesi è stato preso in esame il legame tra patria, nostalgia, viaggio e lingua, partendo dalle figure cardine del mito mediterraneo, Ulisse ed Enea, fino ad arrivare agli scrittori migranti contemporanei. Un paragrafo è dedicato alla filosofa Hannah Arendt e al suo rapporto con la lingua madre, il tedesco, che ella considera come unica patria. Sentirsi a casa significa prima di tutto essere riconosciuti: il tema dell'identità è centrale nell'Odissea così come nell'ampia produzione della letteratura migrante; ma l'identità può essere riconosciuta anche nella propria lingua madre.

Twilight, Hunger Games, L'Alchimista, Il codice da Vinci: come si costruisce un successo editoriale di dimensioni planetarie? Non era mai accaduto che i romanzi – certi romanzi – avessero tanto successo e generassero volumi di vendite così possenti come negli ultimi vent'anni. La serie di Harry Potter, le trilogie di Twilight e Hunger Games, i romanzi di Coelho, le detective story di Stieg Larsson e Dan Brown, da Il codice da Vinci a Inferno, i romanzi di Murakami o opere come Il cacciatore di aquiloni e Cinquanta sfumature di grigio, sono diventati successi mondiali da milioni di copie vendute. Quali sono i motivi di questo successo? Bisogni profondi a cui queste narrazioni si ispirano ma anche fattori produttivi impensabili solo pochi anni fa: dalla tendenza intermediale per cui un libro viene concepito da subito per essere adattato a film, videogame, graphic novel, allo sviluppo di comunità di lettori-fan che danno vita a un flusso continuo di prodotti paralleli all'opera originaria – prequel, sequel, spin off, fake, fanzine. 1250.189

Khaled Hosseini is one of the most widely read and beloved novelists in the world. His novels have sold more than 38 million copies worldwide. Now, six years after A Thousand Splendid Suns debuted at #1, spending fourteen consecutive weeks at #1 and nearly a full year on the hardcover list, Hosseini returns with a book that is broader in scope and setting than anything he's ever written before. A multigenerational-family story revolving around brothers and sisters, it is an emotional, provocative, and unforgettable novel about how we love, how we take care of one another, and how the choices we make resonate through generations. With profound wisdom, insight and compassion, Hosseini demonstrates once again his deeply felt understanding of the bonds that define us and shape our lives—and of what it means to be human.

So, then. You want a story and I will tell you one... Afghanistan, 1952. Abdullah and his sister Pari live in the small village of Shadbagh. To Abdullah, Pari, as beautiful and sweet-natured as the fairy for which she was named, is everything. More like a parent than a brother, Abdullah will do anything for her, even trading his only pair of shoes for a feather for her treasured collection. Each night they sleep together in their cot, their skulls touching, their limbs tangled. One day the siblings journey across the desert to Kabul with their father. Pari and Abdullah have no sense of the fate that awaits them there, for the event which unfolds will tear their lives apart; sometimes a finger must be cut to save the hand. Crossing generations and continents, moving from Kabul, to Paris, to San Francisco, to the Greek island of Tinos, Khaled Hosseini writes about the bonds that define us and shape our lives, and how the choices we make resonate through history.

Un libro moderno per riscoprire Antichi Valori. Primo fra tutti il CORAGGIO: coraggio di cambiare, di cercare dentro se stessi, di non lasciarsi sopraffare dalle mode e dai bombardamenti mediatici dei nuovi canali digitali, di non aver paura della propria ombra, ma soprattutto il coraggio di AMARE.

Negli ultimi tempi le sentenze favorevoli al risarcimento del danno esistenziale si sono moltiplicate in Italia. Cresce perciò l'esigenza di fare il punto sulle questioni - teoriche e pratiche - che la nuova categoria è venuta suscitando. I 6 Volumi di questo Trattato, alla luce della giurisprudenza, mettono in luce quali siano le ipotesi risarcitorie destinate ad assumere rilievo nei vari settori. Il terzo volume è diviso in sette parti: FAMIGLIA, RAPPORTI AFFETTIVI UCCISIONE E INVALIDAZIONE DEL FAMILIARE FIGURE DELLA RESPONSABILITA' ESO FAMILIARE ASPETTI DELLA RESPONSABILITA' ENDO-FAMILIARE BAMBINI, ADOLESCENTI ADOZIONE, AFFIDO ABITAZIONE, DOMICILIO

Based on a true story, tells the tale of a Somali girl who risked her life on a migrant journey to Europe to run in the Olympic Games.

'Sad, funny, wise and unblinkingly honest, this is truly wonderful.' Daily Mail 'I like the smell of pines and the aroma of freshly washed laundry. I like the rattle of hail on windowpanes and the texture of volcanic rock. I like the light in the sky when the sun has gone down.' Cesare is an unlikely hero. As he says himself, 'I am seventy-seven years old, and for seventy-two years and one hundred and eleven days I threw my life down the toilet...' Is it too late for him to rediscover his passion for love and life? Already an international bestseller, The Temptation to Be Happy is a coming-of-age story like no other. 'Immensely charming... Uplifting and very much on the side of life.' Mail on Sunday Parole si fondono tra di loro, come note di uno spartito... In un'opera che sa di sogno, poesia, verità... Più che l'inizio, il prosieguo di un viaggio tra i sentieri dell'anima Un volo immenso, sublime... Because the Taliban rulers of Kabul, Afghanistan impose strict limitations on women's freedom and behavior, eleven-year-old Parvana must disguise herself as a boy so that her family can survive after her father's arrest.

Over 21 million copies sold worldwide

This #ownvoices novel by bestselling author Nadia Hashimi tells the affecting story of an Afghan-American boy who believes his mother has been deported. For fans of Inside Out and Back Again and Counting by 7s. Jason has just learned that his Afghan mother has been living illegally in the United States since his father was killed in Afghanistan. Although Jason was born in the US, it's hard to feel American now when he's terrified that his mother will be discovered—and that they will be separated. When he sees his mother being escorted from her workplace by two officers, Jason feels completely alone. He boards a train with the hope of finding his aunt in New York City, but as soon as he arrives in Penn Station, the bustling city makes him wonder if he's overestimated what he can do. After an accident lands him in the hospital, Jason finds an unlikely ally in a fellow patient. Max, a whip-smart girl who wants nothing more than to explore the world on her own terms, joins Jason in planning a daring escape out of the hospital and into the skyscraper jungle—even though they both know that no matter how big New York City is, they won't be able to run forever.

In a tiny, ancient Italian hill town, where the land gives little and money and food are scarce, Don Francesco Falcone is a man to be reckoned with: rich, powerful, restless, intransigent. When he meets another force of nature, Concetta, a penniless but fiercely indestructible farmworker, the stage is set for the creation of an exceptional family: generations of strong, complicated boys and, especially, girls. The battles between them are many as they live through historical upheaval and private passions. Their stories are told by Gioia, the last of the line, a woman of our times who fights tirelessly against convention. She is the product of a family of memorable women who know how to survive, and also how to make something fantastical and rich out of their lives: with their hands they create delicate and complex embroideries, while their minds embroider endless, elaborate stories. In this sweeping, unforgettable novel, Mariolina Venezia portrays five generations of the Falcone family. Through their complicated, funny, tragic, and astonishing stories, Venezia also recounts a century and a half of Italy's tumultuous history. Been Here a Thousand Years is a testament to the Falcone family, and also to the vibrant, irrational, irresistible country that produced it.

A riveting and powerful story of an unforgiving time, an unlikely friendship and an indestructible love
