Forji has the magical knack of showing the world as it appears through the eyes of a young person. His words first introduce the reader to Cameroon's diverse society as an infant sees it; and then we peer with him through the anxious lens of adolescence. Forji is an authentic Cameroonian voice that helps the reader understand how things were for a youngster in his country in the 1980s and 1990s. Claire George PhD Stunning and unique not just for the unconventional storyline but also the ingenuity with which Forji tells it. an interesting read that chronicles life in a typical African setting as well as the complexities of polygamous family circles. Dr. Edinam K. Glover, University of Helsinki A prosaic masterpiece packed with memorable events. an illuminating African story. Tchoumi Leopold, Author of Des Amours Sans Papiers A story of a childhood with many highs, many lows and many challenges in between, a type of childhood many of us experience. This is Forji's story of how these highs, lows and challenges helped shape him into the man he is today.

The urban waterfront is widely regarded as a frontier of contemporary urban development, attracting both investment and publicity. City, Capital and Water provides a detailed account of the redevelopment of urban waterfronts in nine cities around the world: London, Tokyo, Kobe, Osaka, Hong Kong, Sydney, Toronto, Dublin and Amsterdam. The case studies cover different frameworks for development in terms of the role of planning, approaches to financing, partnership agreements, state sponsorship and development profits. The analysis also demonstrates the effects of economic globalization, deregulation, the marginalization of planning and the manipulation of development processes by property and political interests.

When life presents problems, all a heroine really wants is an answer key to fix them. Shannon Waller lives a paycheck-to-paycheck existence in far north Montana. A missing husband. Not even a pet. Alone. Suddenly life hands her the kind of money she only dreams of—an amount that starts with a B. A move to Ithaca, New York and into a home she inherits plus new friends—what more can she ask for? Private investigator Michael Silver is determined to find out who might want to kill Shannon. While his life seems safe, hers is one ‘accident’ after another, each hurting her worse. When a bullet barely misses Shannon, she and Michael have to discover who, what and why she’s a target for murder. And do it fast before the next attempt succeeds! Living the good life with your husband, an A.I. agent; a little boy's interview with Death; the mythic love of deities; Joseph and his "e;Immaculate Virgin"e; wife, Mary. The novel under consideration describes the events throughout nearly a hundred years and sends the reader to Warsaw, subdued by tsarist Russia, to the gold mines of Western Siberia, where you can come across any kind of crime, including murder. Revolutions, wars, of which 20th century undoubtedly abounds, throw a Ukrainian woman's fate like a furious wind does to a paper doll. The country is captured by Bolsheviks. Disguised as seekers of happy life for poor people, they fight for power: first in their own country, then – throughout the world. To gain this terrific goal they introduce dictatorship. Despite disorders, epidemics, hunger, caused by the new government, the heroine of the novel managed to not only survive, but to raise her children. Times changed, as well as the rulers, but the aim remained. It was fight for power. And the woman, under the circumstances, had nothing to do but just supply cheap labor force. Three main heroines of the trilogy are connected not only by family relations but by the mystic story of an ancient necklace which by magic force returns to its true owner.
