This manual is part of the following series of manuals. (1) NAVEDTRA 130, Task Based Curriculum Development Manual; (2) NAVEDTRA 131, Personnel Performance Profile Based Curriculum Development Manual; (3) NAVEDTRA 134, Navy Instructor Manual; (4) NAVEDTRA 135, Navy School Management Manual. The NAVEDTRA 130 series of manuals provides fundamental guidance within the Naval Education and Training Command (NAVEDTRACOM) for the development of curricula, the delivery of instruction, and the management and evaluation of training programs. Each of the manuals is designed as a stand alone document to serve a specific user group such as curriculum developers, instructors, course managers or training managers. The manuals are, however, interrelated and appropriately cross referenced to one another. The NAVEDTRA 135, Navy School Management Manual, amplifies the policies set forth in Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET) instructions; defines the processes and procedures used in Navy training; and provides guidelines and documentation for the implementation of policies and the management of NAVEDTRACOM schools. The Educational Services Officer, NAVEDTRA 10460-A, and the nonresident training course (NRTC), NAVEDTRA 80460-A, form a self-study training package covering the knowledge required of the men and women of the U.S. Navy and Naval Reserve preparing to serve as an educational services officer. Designed for individual study rather than formal classroom instruction, the training manual (TRAMAN) provides subject matter on various educational programs and benefits and the Navy advancement system.

Learn how to be a leader in your own life and career with expert advice from one of the Navy's elite TOPGUN instructors. During a twenty-year career in uniform, Guy Snodgrass became one of the most skilled fighter pilots in the U.S. Navy, commanding combat jets over some of the most dangerous war zones in the world -- and he did it all using the lessons he learned at the Navy's Fighter Weapons School (TOPGUN). The real-life inspiration for the blockbuster films Top Gun and Top Gun: Maverick, the U.S. Navy Fighter Weapons School trains the top one percent of our nation's fighter pilots. Over the course of twelve weeks, these pilots are drilled on aerial tactics, combat, and skills required to win in any organization. Ordinary people are transformed into world-class leaders. Pilots, like Commander Snodgrass, who remain on staff as TOPGUN instructors, are held to even higher and more demanding standards. In TOPGUN's Top 10, Commander Snodgrass distills some of the most important lessons he's learned and taught over the course of his career into a taut, engaging book for readers of all ages and experience levels. It's the perfect gift for anyone looking to change careers, excel in the workplace, or find their way in the world after college graduation. Smart, practical, and direct, Snodgrass's account of real TOPGUN experience will inspire a new generation of leaders.

Retired Navy SEAL Chris Hagerman will take you inside the Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL Training program to teach prospective Navy SEALs the ins and outs of the most rigorous military selection program in the world. Hagerman, along with the team at SOFREP, is uniquely suited to write a program of instruction which walks would-be Special Operations troops through the course and tells them how to get from A to B and achieve their goals in the Special Operations community. Filled with entertaining anecdotes and an insider's knowledge, Navy SEALs BUD/S Preparation Guide is a must-read for prospective SEALs and armchair military enthusiasts everywhere.

This analysis of survival films is the result of numerous inquiries received from operational units and survival training instructors concerning films available for use in survival indoctrination programs. There are no indications that films in the Air Force inventory have ever been analyzed to determine their applicability to survival programs and specific courses within those programs, hence the decision was made to undertake such an analysis and publish the results along with recommendations on the use of films in support of survival training programs. In the course of this study, all Air Force and many Army and Navy films pertaining to survival were reviewed. Those deemed of particular value to survival training instructors were reviewed a second time, evaluated, and analyzed for area and subject matter coverage. Then followed the classification of the films by environmental and subject matter areas. The films were then ranked on the basis of coverage, accuracy, and method of presentation. (Author).
