Full-sized drawings of 101 appliqué designs, a small drawing of each block, a drawing of each block in a four block setting, and detailed instructions make this extensive pattern collection the ideal resource for both beginning- and intermediate-level quilters. Nancy Brenan Daniels has been teaching appliqué classes at quilting events since 1975 and has drawn upon her experience to answer the questions that quilters ask most often. Projects include Bouquet, Tiny Flower, Sunny Day, Grape Wreath, Fanciful Butterfly, and Double Swag Rose. The chapters cover making and using templates, supplies and tools, appliqué stitches by hand and machine, and how to do reverse appliqué, among other topics.

Admirers of Minki Kim's machine-sewn illustrations will adore her new Zakka motifs in wool, perfect for hand stitching and easy for beginners. Sixty-three colorful designs celebrate the best of everyday life, from morning rituals to nature's beauty. Display your work on six impossibly cute projects, including a leather-strap purse, patchwork coasters, and a boxy sewing case. A robust gallery shows ideas for heartfelt gifts and even more fun ways to decorate your space.

Coloring books are a great way for children to learn the motor skills needed to draw and color with accuracy. They are a fun, whimsical learning tool that have been employed for decades. The subject of the mighty owl is a perfect introduction to a child's coloring hobby. The fabled birds are interesting, mysterious, and serve as a symbol of wisdom; what better way to educate your child than through the birds that symbolize the concept?

This is a bright and humorous collection of foundation paper pieced quilt blocks and projects for happy quilts. The motifs include a wide range of popular designs--everything from avocados to rainbows--so you can mix and match to make perfect personalised quilts and quilted projects. Foundation paper piecing is the perfect way to get perfectly sharp points and create fun quilt motifs. By using the foundation paper piecing (FPP) technique you can create intricate designs which would be impossible with traditional piecing. FPP is done using a sewing machine so even though the blocks are detailed the process is quite quick so you can make cute quilts and quilted projects in quick time. It is also the perfect way to use up your stash of quilting and sewing scraps and have lots of fun selecting the perfect scrap to suit your blocks. This collection features 100 fun quilt blocks from some of the best known names in patchwork and quilting. All the blocks are made using foundation paper piecing and all the templates are featured at full size with the seam allowance added so you can trace them off and get piecing straight away. There's a comprehensive section showing you how to do FPP with step-by-step instructions and photos so even if you've never done FPP before you can get started. The motifs featured include everything from food and drink (strawberry milkshake and pizza anyone?), to designs for outdoor explorers (a canoe and campfire set the scene for adventure lovers); pets and wild animals (think racoons to kittens) and everything in between. There is a block to suit everyone so you can make the perfect themed quilt for your nearest and dearest based on the things that they love the most. As well as instructions and patterns for the 100 FPP blocks there are also instructions for 10 projects made using the blocks including a retro apron; a rainbow pouch bag; a tote with 1950s sunglasses motif; the perfect table runner and a cute, kitten pillow. So why not choose your favourite motifs and get started making perfect quilted gifts for your friends and family!
