The world is more interesting when you look at both ordinary and profound things in new ways. What will archaeologists think of us far into the future? Where is heaven? What can I learn from children and from cats? What's up with the syllable "mor"? Whether playing with words, relating "aha!" moments, or posing metaphors, the author shares his odd thoughts with the intention to entertain and to inspire you to see beyond the ordinary.

Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection, but what constitutes reflective inquiry - and why it's necessary in our lives - can be an elusive concept.

Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire, the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects, not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise, but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew, encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight, teaching and learning. In its opening pages, two seasoned educators, Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman, discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention (Thoreau's "wide-awakeness"), an act of consciousness, and a process by which people can understand themselves, their work (particularly in the form of life projects), and others. Building on this foundation, the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors: - Definitional issues concerning reflection, what it is and is not; - Worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education; - Reflection as promoted across professional educational domains, including K-12 education, teacher education, occupational therapy, and the law; - Methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement; - Current pedagogical and research practices in reflection; - Approaches to assessing reflective inquiry. Educators across the professions as well as adult educators, counselors and psychologists, and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times.

The Storefront Looked Quite Ordinary The sign out front said "Granters of wishes, fulfillers of dreams. Not everything here may be what it seems." Reece almost walked away, but something lured him inside. Reece Evans enjoys nothing quite as much as looking at his own reflection, but when he purchases a unique mirror from the strange disfigured old man who runs the cluttered antique store, he begins to see himself and his life in entirely different ways, and winds up on a journey that just might never end. "In the tradition of the mysterious shop of wonders, Satterfield offers a strong cautionary tale about power and responsibility." - Beverly A. Hale, author of The Essence of Stone, coming from Yard Dog Press Fall 2002.

political shift where power moves from central institutions to smaller, more disbursed units, another landmark text edited by Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson and Pamela Aall provides essential insights and practical guidance. In Managing Conflict in a World Adrift, 40 of the world's leading international affairs analysts examine the relationship between political, social or economic change and the outbreak and spread of conflict. They then consider what this means for conflict management." --

Fractals are characterized by the repetition of similar patterns at ever-diminishing scales. Fractal geometry has emerged as one of the most exciting frontiers on the border between mathematics and information technology and can be seen in many of the swirling patterns produced by computer graphics. It has become a new tool for modeling in biology, geology, and other natural sciences. Anthropologists have observed that the patterns produced in different cultures can be characterized by specific design themes. In Europe and America, we often see cities laid out in a grid pattern of straight streets and right-angle corners. In contrast, traditional African settlements tend to use fractal structures-circles of circles of circular dwellings, rectangular walls enclosing ever-smaller rectangles, and streets in which broad avenues branch down to tiny footpaths with striking geometric repetition. These indigenous fractals are not limited to architecture; their recursive patterns echo throughout many disparate African designs and knowledge systems. Drawing on interviews with African designers, artists, and scientists, Ron Eglash investigates fractals in African architecture, traditional hairstyling, textiles, sculpture, painting, carving, metalwork, religion, games, practical craft, quantitative techniques, and symbolic systems. He also examines the political and social implications of the existence of African fractal geometry. His book makes a unique contribution to the study of mathematics, African culture, anthropology, and computer simulations.

Having a companion is one of the fundamental components in life. With your companion, life becomes more complete and fulfilling. This first of two books is written to encourage you, through an inward journey of deep self-reflection, to offer you a more clear perspective of who you have become. By being objective about your strengths, weaknesses, and understanding how you have come to be the way you are, you can better enter a relationship knowing what you are offering your partner as well as what you are looking for in a relationship. Through this objective approach to relationship building, you can create a stronger foundation in your current as well as future relationships.

Traditional beliefs about meeting goals are fundamentally flawed. Goal setting tactics assume goals are measurable, achieved, and final-all attributes that describe objectives, not goals. Unlike objectives, which are by their very nature self-contained, goals are immeasurable. A goal is realized, not achieved, and must be maintained to remain successful. What good is the goal of losing weight if you don't keep the weight off? Losing twenty pounds is an objective. Keeping that twenty pounds from returning is a goal, which must be maintained to remain a success. In Three Your Life, entrepreneur and accidental expatriate David R. Sanders applies this important distinction between goals and objectives. Beginning with attitude, outlook, and perception, Sanders builds a solid foundation on which to effect major life changes. Learn to differentiate between needs, wants, and desires-and discover how focusing on desires causes everything else to fall into place. To realize desires, Sanders reevaluates conventional thinking on prioritizing tasks, using a three-part daily structure that ensures you're working toward a productive and fulfilling life. A fresh new approach to goal setting, Three Your Life offers the opportunity to realize your goals, achieve your objectives, and understand the difference between the two. This book is a clear and practical guide to help students develop critical thinking, Essay from the year 2009 in the subject Business economics - Personnel and Organisation, printed single-sided, grade: 2,3, Swinburne University of Technology, Melbourne, course: Human Resource Development, language: English, abstract: Experiential education describes a didactic model which is based on the assumption that only a direct and practical examination of the learning content allows for an effective and meaningful learning. In this concept the learner takes the centre stage. David Kolb's 'Experiential Learning Cycle' is a concept within this approach which describes the ideal relation between experience and future action. According to this model learning is a circular process with the subsequent elements: concrete experience, reflective observation, abstract conceptualisation and active experimentation. This essay is aimed at reflecting my personal process of learning, acquisition of skills and career development in a specific learning situation that I experienced throughout the unit 'Human Resource Development' (HRD) during Semester 2, 2009 at Swinburne University of Technology. It follows the elements of the Experiential Learning Cycle in order to evaluate my ideas and learn about further actions.

A tour-de-force by rising indy comics star Gene Yang, American Born Chinese tells the story of three apparently unrelated characters: Jin Wang, who moves to a new neighborhood with his family only to discover that he's the only Chinese-American student at his new school; the powerful Monkey King, subject of one of the oldest and greatest Chinese fables; and Chin-Kee, a personification of the ultimate negative Chinese stereotype, who is ruining his cousin Danny's life with his yearly visits. Their lives and stories come together with an unexpected twist in this action-packed modern fable. American Born Chinese is an amazing ride, all the way up to the astonishing climax. American Born Chinese is a 2006 National Book Award Finalist for Young People's Literature, the winner of the 2007 Eisner Award for Best Graphic Album: New, an Eisner Award nominee for Best Coloring and a 2007 Bank Street - Best Children's Book of the Year. A Bionic, a Mutant, and a Geek are forced by their Keepers to team up and prepare to take back the ruined world. Throughout their training, these teens are led to believe that not everything is as it seems.

Our emotions are powerful and they can lead us to feelings and thoughts of happiness and joy or sadness and devastation. Everyone of us are faced with not only our own emotions but the emotions of others, as well. Learning to master our emotions and how to appropriately respond to the emotions of others is critical to living a successful and happy life. Failure to master our emotions can lead to poor physical health and depression. The good news is that we do not have to be creatures of emotion based reaction behavior but can live the life of success, prosperity and love we deserve. Emotional Mastery will lead you to awareness of the root cause or triggers of your emotions and give you effective methods for dealing with them and increasing your emotional intelligence.

Contrary to the belief of some, our emotions are not necessarily the result of upbringing, social status, or environment. Our emotions should not control us but serve us giving us more management over our lives and improving our relationships. Each of us have within us the power to rein over our emotions and redirect them to become powerful tools of enhanced self-awareness, rapid problem and conflict resolution, influential interpersonal skills, stronger relationships, career success, and enable us to live the happy life we all dream of. You have the power to rein over your emotions and even control them. You have the power to be happy, even when you think it's impossible, and you have the power to change the way you feel. You will soon find that even the most difficult circumstances will be handled with maturity and can no longer harm you or your physical well being. Decide today to raise your Emotional Intelligence stop negative emotional reaction behavior and become the Master of your success and happiness.

A small town is haunted by a crime from 15 years ago. Not one suspect was ever brought to justice. But now, 15 years later, when likely suspects seem to be disappearing from tragic events, the town's down-and-out fire chief may know more than he's letting on. David, the alcoholic fire chief, has had too many things go wrong in his life and has nothing left to live for. Brian Grace lost his daughter 15 years ago and has looked for her ever since. His bodyguard, Jason, is a tough character that likes to control his surroundings and protect his employer. Kelly, the detective, is an attractive woman and finds herself getting more involved with the case than anyone could have predicted. And, there is Chad and his three friends; a tough and nasty group of old school mates that cause trouble wherever they turn up. What could possibly be happening in this small town, and is it even connected to a girl's disappearance 15 long years ago?

Prisoner of the Mind - Spiritual Self-Improvement Personal Development We have the largest prison population in the world in America today, but how many men and women were locked up in their minds before they got to prison?

I didn't know decisions in arranged marriage were made so quickly. When it comes to love marriage there are huge ifs and buts. That the lovers know and understand each other is never taken into consideration. But when it comes to arranged marriage, parents are ready to throw you to sleep with a complete stranger just because he has a secure job and therefore, a good future. They say getting to know each other automatically develops with time. What the ...!

In Stop Sabotaging Your Life: 3 Steps To Your Full Potential, acclaimed life coach Bruno LoGreco shares his simple path to achieving healthy mental and emotional independence. How many times have you caught yourself thinking something like this?: I'm not enough—good enough...smart enough...good looking enough...successful enough.... LoGreco says we sabotage our lives by focusing too much on being what others want us to be and do, and not spending enough time listening to our own hearts and minds. Some people try to find self-acceptance and contentment through counseling, but end up trapped on the therapy treadmill. Others try to go it alone, but still end up in a tiresome process of navel-gazing that never leads to personal fulfillment. LoGreco offers a three-step plan to help you reach your own potential: self-awareness (recognize what you have been doing, and why); rebuilding values (learn a different way to do things); and reach your full potential (identify opportunities and set meaningful goals). You will learn to leverage your strengths to stop chasing illusions and work toward achieving your dreams. LoGreco doesn't claim his book will cure everything that ails you. As he says, "There is no secret formula, no magic pill that will make you happy, productive, and successful. You must challenge your beliefs and take back control of your choices. Don't just think outside the box—break out of it altogether." What clients and readers are saying about life coach, mentor, and motivational speaker Bruno LoGreco: "As a divorced mother of three, I've encountered many obstacles, mostly personal ones within myself. I wondered why I kept repeating the same patterns with the men I was dating and why it always ended badly, usually with me being hurt, and questioned what 'I' was doing wrong. Bruno taught me how to love myself again, how to respect myself and above all else, BELIEVE in myself.... Bruno saved me from my self-destructive patterns. Without his help, I wouldn't be the confident woman I am today. I am a better mother for that." —Cristina "The world is filled with very successful executives who for decades focus every waking minute on professional accolades and professional development [only to] realize they haven't take the time out to focus on personal development in terms of a better balance in life, being in touch with their spiritual side and inner self, and even the fun side of life. That would describe me in the past.... I came across Bruno, and I knew he was the man. His personality exudes authenticity and geniality. The man simply knows his stuff, has this uncanny ability to read between the lines, and zero in instantly on underlying triggers. His structured approach steers you to address issues head on; challenges you to challenge yourself; opens your mind; helps you understand behaviors, experiences and patterns; gets you in touch with yourself; fuels a sense of purpose and passion; and escorts you to chart a new course to life. He never judges, but relentlessly encourages and empowers you. He's truly a brilliant, genuine and a humane person with an infectious enthusiasm to make you seize your inborn potential." —Adrian "If I had to sum up my experience with Bruno in one word, it would be 'awakened.' Bruno helped me see life from a different perspective, which is what I needed, but most importantly, he showed me how to do that myself without being dependent on him.... Bruno got me to step outside of my comfort zone and do things I normally wouldn't have done otherwise, which is undoubtedly the key to growth." —Blaine

Are you and your messages often misunderstood? Do your messages inspire action or add confusion? Although technology now provides multiple channels to communicate on, getting your message understood and acted upon still depends upon your proficiency using the most important communication tools available, your body and emotions. Kurt Larsson's Sensational Presentation Skills is a powerful guide for your journey toward communication mastery. The first in a series of Sensational Soft Skills Toolbox handbooks by Larsson, this practical how-to guide offers twenty steps that highlight the importance of being fully engaged—mind and body—when you communicate. Larsson emphasizes it's equally about the words used and what your body language demonstrates. As more people turn to technology to mediate their human interactions, your ability to engage listeners in person will increase in value. Learn to powerfully handle your fears while expressing yourself fully to "move" others into action. Take a conscious step forward with this toolbox of soft skills and set yourself ahead of the curve, in both your work and your personal life. As your skills increase, you'll appreciate the layers of wisdom Larsson has packed into this guide, and you'll find yourself returning to it again and again.

Today more and more ethnically, culturally, and linguistically diverse students enroll in our college and university courses. These diverse, multilingual students enrich our campuses and at the same time present challenges. Who are these students? What skills do these diverse students need to be successful in college? How can faculty help them succeed? For faculty in all disciplines seeking answers to these questions, this is an essential book. This text provides practical advice on how to assist these students with academic tasks and how to help them to succeed in the academy.

What does it mean to have a "warrior mindset"? What is different in the way a warrior thinks than the rest of us? Throughout the ages, warriors - ancient and modern - have had a determination to win like no other. They are willing to take calculated risks for the betterment of their fellow warriors. They live to stand for something greater than themselves. The warrior mindset is different. It is about knowing what you want and going for it. It's about being hard and it's about not letting little things get you down. It's about pushing ahead with what you know is right and it's about carrying responsibility and hardship on your shoulders with dignity and pride. It's about not letting your emotions get the better of you and it's about not taking the easy answer or the easy route to solve your problems. Instead, it's about taking the hard right and not the easy wrong. Now imagine if you could take that same mindset and apply it to modern life. Instead of getting tired or bogged down, instead of being distracted and tempted, you would instead drive forward with an unstoppable, bulletproof mentality. Your enemies would quake knowing that there was nothing they could do to stop you and the obstacles that normally would block another person's career, relationship goals and financial plans would all crumble beneath your will. Developing a warrior mindset makes you unstoppable. You are a warrior! In Warrior Mindset, we delve into how a warrior thinks and how you can learn that same way of thinking and apply it to your career, relationships and financial goals.

One day I woke up and realized that I had been lost for quite some time. I had got comfortable with how life was treating me. I no longer cared about how I presented myself, stuck between life and death, you know Purgatory. The real me had left long ago and the figure that I saw before me was just a shell that protects me until I could be found again. I had everything a woman could ask for and more yet somehow and somehow I forgot about myself and ended up in the purgatory of living. When I had my epiphany, I discovered some things that I should have seen all along but was too busy allowing life to consume me that I didn't care to pay attention. You know, taking care of kids, husband, family, work, friends and oh yeah, then me if I'm not too tired.... Me! One day I found myself on the outside of the milk carton... Lost, hanging in the purgatory of living. It was the shock of my life yet not a shock for everyone else. Most often others can see what's going on in your life even when you cannot (or you think you do). Don't let that to happen to you or to allow it to continue. You can step out of the purgatory of living and into a new beginning. It could be easier than you think it is. For me... I have some changing to do and the changing can only be done by me for me. I cannot change you or the rest of the world but we can help each other with the process of changing for the better.... TOGETHER! And look who we shall find! (You and me too) Let's begin... how did I lose myself?
