In this present era of competition, every competitive examination consists of 5 sections Quantitative Aptitude, Reasoning, General English, Computer Science and General Awareness related to banking industry. After teaching more than 18,000 students in 28 years, we have seen a lot of students spending their time practicing aptitude and reasoning alone. But the students who cleared the exam would definitely say the above method of practicing would not help because merely passing in Aptitude and Reasoning sections will not help. Students should also think about the other sections and overall cut off. We know a lot of students who cleared all the sections but failed to clear the overall cut off. In fact, Practicing GK and English is the only way to raise the overall cut-off. So, we have decided to dedicate this entire magazine just for General Awareness & Banking awareness. We sincerely believe that students who practice the next 100 pages would secure 40 marks from the Banking awareness section. We thank Google Play for publishing our e-magazine on their mobile platform. We also thank our students who assisted to bring this magazine out.

E-collaboration is a tool that breaks the boundaries of activities within and between organizations. E-collaboration technologies are making it easier than ever for people to work together no matter where they happen to be. Succeeding with collaboration at a level where it represents a competitive advantage requires a broad approach. Internal social networks can circumvent bureaucratic boundaries and facilitate information sharing activities among individuals across hierarchies and divisions or departments. This allows organizations to acquire resources or competencies from external sources that otherwise would be difficult or expensive to access. Accordingly, organizations focus more on their own areas of competence and gain a competitive advantage by acquiring richer content and better solutions in a creative and cost-effective way. Challenging times can provide new opportunities that need to be detected at the right time. There must be many other sources of competitive advantages which should support the main source of competitive value. Competitive advantage may be gained if the organization is able to find sources of competitive advantage in time of economic crises. Organizations have rapidly deployed technology solutions, such as collaboration tools and cloud computing, which enable their employees to work remotely and continue these organizational operations, especially during times of crisis. E-Collaboration Technologies and Strategies for Competitive Advantage Amid Challenging Times focuses on e-collaboration technologies, strategies, and solutions from a perspective of organizational competitive advantage, including e-collaboration technologies' situation and solutions, innovation systems, competition and strategies, marketing, and growth capabilities. The book presents a full understanding on e-collaboration technologies, strategies, and solutions in organizations, and provides insight for how to develop e-collaboration technologies, strategies, and solutions more generally so as to simultaneously leverage potential benefit and guard against potential risk, promoting organizational competitive advantage amid challenging times. This book is ideally intended for policymakers, government officials, corporate heads of firms, managers, managing directors, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students seeking information on the e-collaboration technologies being employed in businesses in times of crisis.

As globalization is redefining the field of corporate finance, international finance is now part and parcel of the basic literacy of any financial executive. This is why International Corporate Finance is a “must” text for upper-undergraduates, MBAs aspiring to careers in global financial services and budding finance professionals. International
