The novel My 3rd Eye follows the life of the main character, Patrick OShea. This story continues as told through Patrick's eyes, his memories while growing up, the boyhood adventures with his friends by the fort and Petes Pond to his grammar and high school days and the characters he encounters. Rather than going directly from high school to college his life had other plans in the form of serving for America in the Korean War. Again fate through a detour in the form of an eye injury suffered. That wasn't so good in the short term but it allowed him to form a relationship with his nurse, Erin. He from Massachusetts and Erin Toles from neighboring Maine and once the pair return to the states, after a period of separation the two reunited in a special way. Now married, the couple raised 3 children, twin sons Patrick and Michael and the youngest, daughter Erica. To earn a family income Erin resumed her nursing career by Mercy Hospital and Pat pursued his love of writing at the local paper Massachusetts Courier Express which was a perfect fit. The following years he wrote articles and columns about the events occurring in the real world and those were intertwined with stories, happenings in his personal life. Like all people he experienced both highs and lows. The accomplishments he and his family enjoyed, the births, and the deaths of those important to him and the discoveries. This book of short stories offers the readers a window into the life of the author as a young boy growing up in New Waterford, Cape Breton in the 1960's. Focused on simple encounters with family, friends and those who came into his life, the stories show how seemingly unimportant daily interactions shaded and prepared him for future aspects of his life. Anchor of My Heart is a nostalgic reminder of the importance of simpler days which are often not fully appreciated at the time. For the author, the metaphor of an anchor represents the hope that sprouted from his youth and the moral guidance it has provided him during his adult years, sometimes in places very far from Cape Breton Island. It is a tribute to the earliest memories of those who came into the author's life throughout his childhood and who helped form his world view.
