Review of The Demonic: 'The Demonic, by author Lee Mountford, is a horror tour de force...It is scary. Truly scary.' - Horrornovelreviews.com Review of The Mark: 'There's a slow build-up of dread, as he builds the characters and atmosphere, and slowly unwinds the story. At times, he dangles you over the edge for a few moments before he plunges you over the edge. And this is where his storytelling is a cut above many of his peers.' - Intothemacabre.com Review of Forest of the Damned: 'I find that it's often the details we least expect that elevate a novel's status in our mind, and keep it there longer. A great testament to Mountford's skill as a writer, is that I can still vividly "see" many of the scenes in my mind, several books afterward. Highly recommended.' - Horrorafterdark.com In Kai Ashante Wilson's The Lamentation of Their Women, the Prince of Darkness selects a young woman from the Bronx as his chief lieutenant.
